U. S. HOSPITAL NEAR MARION, C. OF C. AIM

Local Civic Group Will Send Delegation to Washington Oct. 30.

$1,000,000 ESTABLISHMENT

Will Attempt To Land Veterans' Institution in Vicinity of City.

The chamber of commerce will send a delegation to Washington, D. C., Oct. 30 to ask the federal board of hospitalization to locate a proposed $1,000,000 federal Veterans' hospital near Marion, it was definitely decided at a meeting of directors of the chamber at the Marion club yesterday afternoon.

Legion To Aid

Details for Marion's bid for the hospital will be worked out within the next few days. The chamber, which filed a brief listing Marion's advantages as a site for the federal institution last July 22, has been notified by the federal board that the matter of locating the hospital will be taken up Oct. 30.

Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162, the American Legion, is planning to cooperate in the movement to attract the hospital to the vicinity of Marion.

Decision to hold weekly luncheon meetings, in the Marion club for the present, was reached by the board of directors yesterday. The meetings will begin at 11:45 a. m. each Wednesday and will be, primarily, business sessions without programs.

Reports on the progress of the membership drive now under way show 50 persons have been added to the chamber, and that many more prospective members are yet to be solicited. R. T. Lewis, one of four captains heading the drive, reported his division will turn in its full quota of 40 members when the drive ends next week. President Karl Scnell has asked all workers to make final reports on their work to their respective captains by next Wednesday.

A number of other Ohio cities are bidding for the proposed hospital. Among them are Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo, Columbus, Akron and Dayton.

According to information obtained by the Marion chamber of commerce, the hospital is to be located somewhere in Ohio and definite building plans will be announced when location for the institution is selected.

EDISON'S DEATH NEAR, IS BELIEF

Weakening of Pulse Causes Worry for Attending Physician.

By The Associated Press

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Oct. 15—Thomas A. Edison today was on the threshold of the coma from which his physician does not expect he will ever awake.

Dr. Hubert S. Howe, the aged inventor's personal physician, said that the "deep stupor" into which Edison has now lapsed is closer to a coma than he has been at any time in the past few days, and that Edison's pulse is showing definite signs of weakening.

The physician said he could not tell how long it would be until the end comes but he intends to keep in closer touch with the Edison home throughout today and tonight.

In his morning bulletin, Dr. Howe said:

"During the past 24 hours, Mr. Edison has not roused. He shows no signs of discomfort, simply resting quietly. There is no evident emergency."

But later he explained he was worried about the change in the inventor's pulse and had no way of being certain as to how far off the "evident emergency" might be.

CRISIS PICTURED BY H. G. WELLS

Copyright 1931 by International News Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 15—The western civilization is on the brink of an economic and social breakdown. One wheel of the car is already over the cliff. We must throw out the politicians and speculators before the car goes over."

This is what H. G. Wells, British prophet-scientist on a visit to America, told International News Service in an interview today.

He predicts the next four years will prove one of the greatest tests of brain power mankind has ever faced. Either the much-acclaimed brain of man will find a solution or modern civilization as we know it will crumple.

Wells said America should have no misunderstandings of the situation in Europe—"Germany and central Europe is on the verge of social breakdown that threatens to sweep the western world," he said.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS AT COOKING SCHOOL

Green Camp Domestic Science Class Hear Lecture in Star Auditorium.

Lowering skies failed to keep the women of Marion away from their second day at The Star cooking school. The attendance was larger than Tuesday's record breaking crowd. And only a few seats in the large auditorium were vacant when Edna M. Ferguson, lecturer, opened her "class."

"Men have up-to-date offices, why shouldn't the women have their kitchens equally well equipped?" she asked in the course of her talk.

Twelve girls from the Green Camp High school domestic science classes were seated at the front of the auditorium as the special guests of The Star.

Flowers added to the attractiveness of the stage and to the table which was set for luncheon. Miss Ferguson includes with her afternoon lectures, pointers on proper table etiquette, and the model table set each day for a different meal, are socially correct.

The women, who arrived early, and some came at 12:30 to get front seats, enjoyed a leisurely view of the kitchen and heard the music program.

Miss Ferguson cooked the dishes listed on the day's program and as at the Tuesday school, explained each step, discussed the food products which went into each dish and dwelt upon their nutritional value and importance to health.

The nursery cared for 33 babies in the afternoon and the atmosphere was noticeably more quiet than on Tuesday.

The long line of women anxious to meet Miss Ferguson and to inspect her kitchen and cookery, was more than half an hour in passing.

USES GUN

Marion Bailey, 23-year-old president of the State Bank of Linton, Ind., fired several volleys from his shotgun at bandit-thieves who terrorized the whole village after cutting communication wires, wrecked the bank interior with explosives and blasted the bank safe, obtaining $4,000.

HERE'S PROGRAM FOR FRIDAY

Doors open at 1 p. m. Music at 1:30 p. m. Demonstrations at 2 p. m.

Dishes to be prepared include sugar cookies, baked creamed potatoes and eggs, bran muffins, cooked salad dressing, salmon loaf with egg parsley, cornmeal pie, baked pork chop with tomatoes, devil's food nut cake, brown sugar icing, coffee cream sherbet.

CALLES TAKES MEXICAN POST

GOVERNMENT RESIGNS

Former President Pledges Aid in Forming New Ministry.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 15—Former President Plutarco Elias Calles emerged as a dominant figure in the Mexican government again today following the resignation of the cabinet owing to "increasing political unrest."

President Ortiz Rubio appointed Calles, Mexico's "iron man," to the post of minister of war in succession to General Joaquin Amaro. Last night he accepted the resignations of Minister of Interior Lazaro Cardenas, Minister of Agriculture Saturnino Cedillo, Minister of Communications Juan Andreu Almazan, and General Amaro, but refused that of Minister of Finance Montes De Oca.

General Calles pledged his full strength in aiding President Rubio to stabilize the government. He said he felt it was an hour of need for Mexico and that he would act in accordance with his message to congress Sept. 1, 1929, in which he warned that the rule of the "man on horseback" was over in Mexico.

Calles first returned to power in March, 1929, when he accepted temporarily the post of minister of war in order to put down the Escobar revolt which threatened the life of the Portes Gil government.

The exact nature of the political crisis causing the resignation of the government was not explained.

It was considered partly economic but mostly political. It had been rumored for days that action would soon be necessary to curb the ambitious plans of various Mexican politicians who were considered to be threatening the stability of the government. It was generally believed that reorganization would steady the situation.

WOMAN SHOT IN HEART SURVIVES

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 15—Mrs. Helen Smith, 21-year-old bride, is one woman in a hundred thousand. Although she shot herself in the heart last Tuesday night, she was still living today, and was expected by surgeons to win her fight for life.

Dr. Charles G. Shannon, her physician said that when she fired the shot her heart was dilated between beats and the bullet grazed it and lodged in her back. This could not happen again, he added, in a hundred thousand times.

Mrs. Smith shot herself, charges she feared she would have to abandon a custom surgical operation. For three hours attempted physicians worked at closing up the opening and preventing the poisoning blood.

BETHLEHEM CANCELS GIANT STEEL MERGER

Proposed Amalgamation with Youngstown Sheet & Tube Falls Through.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 15—Eugene G. Grace, president of Bethlehem Steel Corp., today announced the merger contract between Bethlehem and Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. has been cancelled.

Mr. Grace said due to changed conditions, it was deemed impracticable to carry out the contract made in March 1930 for merging the two companies and that Bethlehem had exercised its option to cancel the contract.

The contract, Mr. Grace said, had been extended from time to time by agreement of the parties in the hope that conditions would justify consummation of what both believed to be a sound undertaking.

The agreement had covered acquisition by Bethlehem, either directly or through subsidiaries, of all properties and assets of Youngstown Sheet & Tube.

After a delay caused by court proceedings to restrain the voting of certain shares, the plan received approval of more than the required two-thirds of Youngstown stock on April 13, 1930.

Dissenting interests, headed by Cyrus S. Eaton, after prolonged hearings obtained an injunction, alleging among other grounds that stockholders had received inadequate information.

CHICAGO FACED WITH CLOSING OF SCHOOLS

Unpaid Teachers Consider Proposal To Quit at Mass Meeting.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 15—A proposal to close Chicago's schools for lack of money is being considered by some of the city's army of 14,000 public school instructors.

The proposal was made yesterday by Clyde A. Crowley, one of the thousands of Chicago's teachers who have not received pay roll money for their services since last spring, due to a tax muddle. He stated they have been paid until recently in scrip, acceptable in exchange for merchandise in most Chicago stores.

Speaking at a South Side mass meeting of about 4,000 teachers, Crowley, a high school instructor, said that it might be well to close the schools to give the teachers a chance to spend the time they now devote to their classes in seeking relief from their financial difficulties.

POLICE STILL ON GUARD IN POLITICAL ROW

Long Retains Governorship of Louisiana in Complicated Turmoil.

THIRD MAN CLAIMS POST

Jobless "Unknown" Takes Oath in Anti-Climax to Ouster Battle.

By The Associated Press

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 5—With a flourish of arms and the citation of precedents, Huey P. Long held the capitol against the siege of two other claimants to his job of governor today.

Meanwhile, Louisiana's executive regime became a complicated affair of governors, lieutenant governors and politics.

Long placed his armed state highway police about the entrances to the state capitol, in the office of the secretary of state and at the executive mansion to prevent Lieutenant Governor Paul N. Cyr from entering to press his claim to the executive chair.

Asserts Office Vacated

Cyr, for years a political enemy of Long, charged the governor's recent election to the United States senate vacated the state office. "Long is either governor or he is senator," Cyr declared, "but he is not both senator and governor."

Tuesday, Cyr voluntarily took the governor's oath before a deputy clerk at Shreveport.

As an anti-climax to the Long-Cyr dispute, Walter A. Aldrich, an unemployed resident of Shreveport, unheard of before in politics, took the oath of office of governor and said he too would file an ouster suit against Long, go to Baton Rouge and take over the capitol, as it was "abandoned property" if Cyr's claims were true.

Long, in a statement he issued last night, based his legal claim to keep his office on the point that he had promised the people he would finish out his term as governor if they elected him to the senate and the fact that he had not yet been administered the oath of the senate.

Cites Precedents

He cited similar tardy arrivals in congress, including David B. Hill of New York, Hiram Johnson of California and Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, which he said backed up his claim that he could rightfully vacate the senate chair until next May when his term of governor ends. He said each continued his terms as governor before going to Washington.

RELIEF COMMITTEE FORMULATES PLANS

Dr. N. Sifritt Named Chairman of Governor's County Welfare Organization.

With Dr. N. Sifritt, city and county health commissioner, chosen chairman and Roy Waddell, representing the Red Cross, as secretary, the Marion county governor's relief committee yesterday afternoon discussed ways and means of conducting the work of the committee. The members met in the office of the county board of commissioners with O. W. Kinnamon in charge.

A tentative method of procedure was proposed which would divide the county into school districts with a representative of the committee appointed in each district to act as a sub-committee. This representative according to the plan, would submit to the committee names of worthy persons in need of aid in his district. With a supply of these names on hand, it was proposed that the committee give these names to the state highway department and various contractors when work is planned.

A meeting is planned for early next week to further outline the plan of operation of the committee. Members of the county organization are Dr. Sifritt, Roy Waddell, George Gerns, representing the American Legion and C. B. Rayburn, county superintendent of schools. They are part of Governor White's statewide organization to aid local communities in handling relief work this winter.

SPAIN UNDER NEW LEADER

Azana Takes Presidency with Republic Menaced by Religious Strife.

REVOLT THREATS HEARD

Communists and Anti-Clerical Forces Embroiled in Street Fights.

By The Associated Press

MADRID, Oct. 15—Spain's new president, Manuel Azana, picked up the reins of government today in an atmosphere of religious dissension fraught with danger for the future of the Republic.

Under the provisions of the new constitution, he was designated by the national assembly last night as leader of the radical opposition to succeed Nicete Alcala Zamora, who resigned with his cabinet in protest against anti-church legislation. He reappointed the former cabinet with two changes.

Voted Confidence

President Azana told The Associated Press that "the republic is immovable. We are as strong as if we had held power a long time. Our fundamental mission consists of fabricating a great strong prosperous republic with peace and justice for all."

The change in authority was accompanied by vigorous demonstrations against the church and threats of revolt against the government. Bands of Communists and anti-clericals ranged through the streets shouting violence to Catholicism and the Jesuits. Police engaged in running fights with them. A dozen or more were badly beaten and a score were arrested.

The government received hundreds of protest over the constitutional articles separating the church and state and subjecting some religious orders to dissolution. Rumors of revolution drifted down from the strong Catholic provinces of Basque and Navarre.

HONOR GUEST

Miss Ema Gonzales of Chile, student at Ohio State university, was an honor guest at the Pan American luncheon yesterday which brought to a close the Central district conference of the Ohio Federation of Women's clubs.

Pan-American Luncheon Ends Club Meet; Honors Mrs. Harder

Flags and streamers in hues of red, white and blue gave a colorful touch to the tables arranged for the Pan-American luncheon which brought to a close the annual conference of the Central District, Ohio Federation of Women's clubs yesterday afternoon in the grill at Hotel Harding. Covers were placed for 150 delegates and guests.

The luncheon honored Mrs W. N. Harder, past president of the Ohio federation and founder of the Margaret Harder scholarship, and Miss Ema Gonzalez of Chile, a student at Ohio State university as recipient of the scholarship. Neighborliness and good will was the program theme and Mrs. W. N. Harder gave an interesting talk, "Who Is My Neighbor?" In Miss Gonzalez's response she expressed the good wishes of her people and her own appreciation of the advantages offered through the Pan-American scholarship.

Explains Petitions

In Mrs. Harder's talk she explained fully the two petitions which are being distributed to the club women of the country, one to the senate in regard to the entrance of the United States into the World court and the other to be sent to the Geneva disarmament conference in February, 1932.

Mrs. Vera Koons, wearing a colorful costume, played a number of airs on the accordion and accompanied the assembly in the singing of a number of pep songs.

A report of the convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs held last summer at Phoenix, Ariz., was presented by Mrs. W. H. Schwartz, president of the state organization at the closing session yesterday morning. Music included a violin solo by Miss Miriam Walker and a group of songs directed by Mrs Carl Patterson of Coshocton.

Dr. Peirce Speaks "Sane Saving, Spending, Sharing" was the topic discussed by Dr. Josephine L. Peirce of Lima, past president of the state federation in her talk on a home economy program.

Mrs Peirce urged the women to cooperate in President Hoover's plans for relieving the situation of unemployment and stated that it was her belief that the American people would come out of the depression with many economic problems solved. "Women are gradually growing more interested in finances," Dr. Peirce stated. She urged the women to make a study of business cycles in order to meet other situations such as the present one. "This isn't the first time America has met this need; she came out of it then and she will again," she said.

Family Cooperation

That every member of the family should have a knowledge and share of the family budget and should be taught to contribute their share to the plan by making certain sacrifices necessary in maintaining the home, was the opinion expressed by the speaker. She warned the members of the group to guard against becoming panicky in regard to financial problems and gave as an optimistic view that matters would work out satisfactorily, the fact that heads of business throughout the country were thinking on the economic problems as well as the individual affected by the times.

"America is doing something that no other country has undertaken in providing free education for our boys and girls throughout a high school course," said Supt. C. A. Bowman in his talk, "Some Barriers in the Way of Progress in Public Education." Educators today are learning what should be taught and are placing a question mark on a great many of our accepted studies, he said. A scientific study of education is practically limited to this country as a great deal of thought is being given new ideas as to what steps taken along these lines represent real progress, he stated.

Pride of 35 Confers Degree at Railway Auxiliary Meet

MEMBERS of the degree team of Pride of 35, Lodge No 79, L. A. of B. of R. T., captained by Mrs Harry Haflick, exemplified the long form of initiatory work at the state meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen held yesterday in the Pythian temple at Akron.

Members of Pride of 35 and Whitney Lodge No. 846 of this city made the trip in a special coach on the Erie railroad. More than 600 delegates and visitors from the state and adjoining states attended the one-day session. Guest speakers included Mrs. Clara Bradley of Columbus, national grand president, and A. W. Whitney of Cleveland, national grand president of the Railway Trainmen's organization, and other grand lodge officers. Social features included a banquet following the afternoon session and a ball.

At the close of the work presented by the Marion organization, Mrs. Haflick captain of the team and Mrs. Addie Hentze, president of the lodge were presented gifts from the team by the national grand president.

Members of a Cleveland lodge exemplified the short initiatory form and the Akron lodge presented the work of draping the charter. Other lodges taking part were Willard, Cleveland and Akron. The next Annual convention will be held in Cleveland.

Doctor's THREE RULES
Big Help to Bowels

WHAT a joy to have the bowels move like clockwork, every day! It's easy, if you mind these simple rules of a famous old doctor:
1. Drink a big tumblerful of water before breakfast, and several times a day.
2. Get plenty of outdoor exercise without unduly fatiguing yourself.
3. Try for a bowel movement at exactly the same hour daily.

Everyone's bowels need help at times, but the thing to use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You'll get a thorough cleaning-out, and it won't leave your insides weak and watery. This family doctor's prescription is just fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other mild ingredients that could not hurt even a child. But how it wakes up those lazy bowels! How good you feel with your system rid of all that poisonous waste matter.

Clean up that coated tongue, sweeten that bad breath, and get rid of those bilious headaches. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will soon free the bowels from waste. You'll eat better and sleep better, and feel better all over. Generous bottles at all druggists.

NEW TREATMENT FOR SKIN IRRITATIONS AND ATHLETE'S FOOT

The same formula which leading doctors in hospitals and institutions use to stamp out skin irritations, rashes and infections like Athlete's Foot, is now available for home use. It is called Orthex. It stops the itching and starts the healing immediately after application.

Orthex is soothing to the skin but so powerful that it kills the tiny organisms that cause Toe Itch or Ringworm Infection. One bottle often cleans up the most severe case.

All leading druggists have Orthex and guarantee it to give complete satisfaction or your money will be refunded. —Adv.

facing a difficult interview with my mother-in-law, I went out of the studio veranda and crossed the orchard to the house. As I did so, I heard a sharp "Who goes there?" from the upper veranda and saw Roderick and Junior grinning down at me.

"Are you a friend?" Junior demanded, and Roderick chimed in with: "Advance and give the countersign."

"But I haven't learned it yet," I said smiling.

"Then I'm afraid you'll have to be hanged at the yardarm," Roderick said.

A Little Anger

"Aw! that's not quite fair!" Junior expostulated as seriously as if Roderick's threat had been real. "We ought to give her a chance to guess."

"All right!" Roderick agreed "I don't care. Let her guess!"

"It's a name you know, and like a lot," Junior prompted, and something vibrant in his voice gave me the clue.

"Baby Faith!" I said, and smiled at the light which shone in his eyes.

"She got it first thing," Junior shouted, dancing up and down. "You can come in now," he added, just as his grandmother appeared behind him.

"What do you mean by yelling like that?" she demanded. "It's a mercy you haven't wakened the baby. For goodness sake, Margaret, do you mean to say that you've been standing there and letting those children yell at you in that fashion when you know the baby is asleep.

"I didn't know," I said meekly. "I do hope the baby hasn't wakened."

"It's no fault of yours, if she hasn't," my mother-in-law retorted tartly, and then as if the little ebullition had exercised her temper, she added:

A Real Affection

"Come up! I want to talk to you."

I lost no time in obeying her command, for it was virtually that. So swiftly indeed did I run up the steps that I was quite breathless when I reached her room, and she looked at me critically.

"What's the matter with you that you're out of breath like that?" she demanded. "You're not fat enough to puff. Are you sure your heart's all right?"

There was such real concern in her voice that suddenly I felt armed for the interview before me. No matter how cantankerous she was I knew that I had a reserve of her very affection for me upon which I could fall back as on a wall.

LADY with a PAST

SYNOPSIS

Popularity is the stakes for which Venice Muir has been trained and groomed, but she sees no chance of winning. Her mother, prominent in New York society, cares only for Venice's social success. Venice realizes that she hasn't the right sure that her friends possess. She is unusually lovely, but her face is both immature and wistful. "I look too pure," she decides. "Purity is out of style." The Goadby's party is for Venice merely another instance of her lack of appeal. Her friend Lola Goadby provides her with partners, but she cannot interest them. Attempting to imitate the methods of the other girls, she fails miserably. The next morning, Venice considers trying to write a novel. Continual introspection has given her ability to analyze the emotions of others. Mrs. Muir comes in, and looks anxiously at Venice. "How was the Goadby's party?" she asks.

CHAPTER 4

Self-Revelation

"IT WAS really beautifully done," Venice told her mother. "Excellent music. Lush food, lots of people."

"Did you have a good time?"

"M-mm."

"Why not?"

"Oh, Mother, I got stuck as usual."

It was these repeated post-party catechisms that heightened the urge within Venice for popularity. They lent her failure added significance.

There was a silence. Mrs. Muir looked distressedly perplexed. "I can't understand you, Venice," she complained.

"I'm so easy to understand, Mother. That's probably one of the troubles. No one's intrigued by the obvious. We've gone over it too often. I just don't happen to have any social graces. I like to talk books and things like that. No one wants to talk books at a party. I try for airy persiflage. It simply won't come to the tip of my tongue. And the knowledge that I'm stupid that way makes me self-conscious and dull." Her words fairly tumbled over each other in the bitterness of self-revelation. "You can't turn a violet into an orchid no matter how you cultivate it. Mayn't I take some courses up at Columbia? I'd love to write. I have plenty of plots in my head, haven't I, Mother?"

"One of those intellectual girls! Nonsense, Venice. Writing isn't going to keep your life warm and filled as you grow older. It's entertaining and being entertained that fills the nooks and crannies. A husband, children, your own home. Plenty of friends, plenty of invitations. That's the essence of life. Don't be absurd, my dear."

"I wonder."

"Don't wonder," snapped Mrs. Muir. "Be satisfied with what has satisfied generations before you. Wondering is the undoing of the modern generation."

"Or the making," suggested Venice.

"There!" said Mrs. Muir disgustedly. "That's the kind of remark, I suppose, you make at a party. Deep. Never try to be clever with men, Venice. They want you to think them clever but they shy clear of brains in the weaker sex."

"Dear mother! You're so south-of-the-Mason-and-Dixon-line, if you know what I mean."

"I'm glad to say I don't." She glanced at a jeweled watch on her wrist. "Goodness, almost 11. I must be off to the Red Cross. Goodbye, dear."

Venice put aside the breakfast tray. Writing? Writing would be something within herself, all her own. The neglect of others could not frustrate it. A novel. Would she have the perseverance? A book about herself. She jumped out of bed, pulled a negligee about her, settled at the spinet desk. Pencil. Paper. She became absorbed.

Twenty minutes later Venice leaned back in the chair. She felt warm and excited and strangely anticipatory. She read what she had written. She liked it. She had shown herself at the Goadby's party. It seemed like a real party if only she had succeeded in bringing out the poignant misery of her own unpopularity. Her eyes shone. I'm going to do a little every day.

The telephone at her bedside table jangled.

"Hello."

"Morning, Venice."

"Oh, Lola. Your party was lovely. Come to lunch, won't you. We'll mull it all over."

"Fine. Are you going to the Yale-Princeton game by any chance?"

"No. I don't expect to go."

"Well, I'll be along in a minute. 'Bye, Venice."

Venice let the receiver sink slowly into place. The Yale-Princeton game. Crisp, tangy air; pretty girls in pretty clothes; cheery rows in raccoon coats and high spirits. And going home in a car. Laughing and singing and snuggling close to a raccoon shoulder. She knew. She'd done it once, her debutante year, when her mother had arranged a party. She had liked it better than anything that had ever happened in the gay, social whirl. Oh, God, she wanted to go. Almost everybody went. And what was worse almost everybody talked of it for a week before and a week afterward. Two weeks of acknowledged exclusion for Venice.

Writing. Pouff! It wasn't enough.

When Lola came Venice analyzed her for the hundredth time. Nothing ever worried or fretted her, seemed to impress her one way or another. She did gaily, heedlessly on. Her brown eyes, chocolate and slightly prominent, like the eyes of a Pekinese, sparkled and laughed, her mouth turned up at the corners, her snub nose aided and abetted her general look of effervescence. Even the crisp bits of crinky yellow hair that showed from the sides of her close-fitting black hat had an air of vitality and suppressed gaiety.

"Whither away?" she cried.

"That's just what I feel like doing—withering away," said Venice dryly.

"And what's the matter now?" Lola tossed her hat and coat on the nearest chair.

Sitting opposite each other at the oval mahogany table, sunshine painting it to the redness of ripe cherries, flashing on old Colonial silver, dappling gold the poinsettia chrysanthemums in the center crystal bowl, Venice unburdened herself.

"I'm all wrong," she blurted. "What's the use of pretending? I never make a hit anywhere. No one hardly ever takes me home. Don't you think I might back out of it all, study something?"

"Heavens no! Why? What you want to back out of is the only thing, Venice. You'll get into your stride suddenly one of these days. You're shy, that's all. Stick it out. It'll be worth it. It's fun."

"Yes, if you're popular. I'm not. It's agony then. Hanging about and watching other people enjoy themselves. What makes one popular do you think?"

Lola nibbling a roll, reflected.

"Well, there're various types of popularity."

"For instance?"

Cost 85 Cents To Put Rheumatic Cripple Back to Work Again

Now Joyously Happy

While all his family looked on in astonishment and all his friends were amazed, one man took all the pain, swelling and agony from his tortured joints in 48 hours and did it with that famous rheumatic prescription known to pharmacists as Allenru—you can do the same.

This powerful yet safe remedy is positively guaranteed to do this—its action is almost magical.

Just get one 85 cent bottle of Allenru from Henney & Cooper or any live druggist—take it as directed and if in 48 hours your pains haven't all left you get your money back.

Cooking School Note

In the cooking school conducted under the auspices of The Star in The Star Auditorium Miss M. Ferguson stresses modern methods of cooking. Naturally, then, she uses and recommends CRISCO, the modern shortening.

Did George Washington name it for a real Sally Lunn?

WHO was Sally Lunn? Some say she was George Washington's housekeeper—who made a certain hot-bread that was so good he gave it her name. Others say that Sally once sold these famous tea-cakes on the streets of Bath, England. At any rate, you've heard of Sally Lunns, but maybe you've never eaten the real one.

Here it is, straight from Virginia. A descendant of the first president's family gave me this recipe, with this improvement: she specifies Crisco, a modern shortening that tastes so sweet you just know it's bound to improve the flavor of anything you make with it.

SALLY LUNNS

½ cup Crisco
½ cup sugar
2 eggs (beaten)
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups flour
½ cup milk

Cream Crisco and sugar together. Add beaten eggs and mix well. Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt and add alternately with milk to the first mixture. Bake in a Crisco-greased pan in hot oven (400° F.) 30 to 35 minutes.

HIGHLAND SCONES

This is a Caledonian hot-bread with an American accent—good!

2 cups bread flour
½ cup milk
2 eggs
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons Crisco
Jam or marmalade
2 tablespoons sugar
4 teaspoons baking powder

Blend Crisco with sifted dry ingredients. (No long process of cutting hard fat into the flour—Crisco is of vegetable origin.) Stir in milk and eggs. Spoon dough onto oiled paper dusted with flour. Pat with hand to ½ inch thickness. Spread jam or marmalade over half the dough, cover with other half and press gently together. Cut into squares and then, separate the layers carefully. Brush with milk, to give a rich brown glaze, and bake in hot oven (400° F.) from 10 to 15 minutes. Serve while hot. For tea or breakfast. (Split scone from recipe and spread each half with butter, then put together again. Delicious when so served.)

CITY BRIEFS

Infant Buried—The funeral of Mildred Ruth Neil, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Neil of 839 Bennett street, was conducted today at 2:30 p. m. at the C. E. Curtis Co. mortuary on east Center street. The baby died Wednesday morning. Rev. W. Martell George of Wesley M. E. church officiated. Burial was made in Marion cemetery.

Funeral Friday — The funeral of Charles Cox, retired Erie railroad employe, will be conducted Friday at 2 p. m. at the home at 150 Homer street. Mr. Cox died yesterday noon. Rev. B. Tyler Gates, pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran church, will officiate. Burial will be made in Marion cemetery.

Window Broken—W. L. Cranston of 498 Scrabton avenue reported to the police this morning that shortly before 6 a. m. someone had thrown a rock through a window at his home.

Board Meets—Members of the executive committee of the Marion Auto club held their monthly meeting at the Hotel Marion yesterday. The program was confined to the reading of the monthly reports and minor discussions.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moore of 440 Blaine avenue are the parents of a son born yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Myers of the Wyandot pike are the parents of a daughter born Wednesday morning. The baby has been named Wilhelmina Belle.

MARION MOTHER NEEDS BABY PEN

A Marion mother is in need of a baby pen. The request is unusual, and is one which the commissary of the Family Welfare society cannot fill on a moment's notice.

The mother has a large family and to keep her house in order and her other children clean and clothed she must have some way of keeping her baby in one place while she is working. A baby pen will answer the purpose.

Anyone in Marion who has such an article of furniture has been asked to call the Family Welfare society at 1868.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac N. Rodman of 286 Fillmore street, a sister, Mrs. Minnie Hampshire of 287 Chestnut street and two brothers, Ben and Artie Rodman reside in this city, as well as two nieces, Mrs. Theodore Moler of 258 Waterloo street, and Mrs. John K. Stackpole of 287 Chestnut street.

Mrs. Stone is known here, having frequently visited at the home of her parents. Her husband was accidentally killed in June of this year. She is survived by the following children: Leola, Artie and Raymond at home; Herman and Waynard of Columbus; Irvin of Logan, and Mrs. Lauretta Rodman of Plymouth. Besides the sister and two brothers residing here a brother Arthur Rodman of Plymouth, Mich., Frank Rodman of Wayne, Mich., Homer Rodman of Gladwin, Mich., and Mrs. Cora Cummins of Logan also survive.

The funeral will be held Saturday at 1:30 p. m. in the Mount Pleasant church at Logan and burial will be made in the Shaw cemetery there. The Marion relatives will attend the funeral.

Mrs. Owens on Stand in Divorce Suit Hearing

Wife of Marion Manufacturer Testifies Husband Was Abusive and That He Became Intoxicated: Reviews Married Life in Two and Half Hours on Stand.

Mrs. Mabel Chapman Owens was the first witness at the hearing of her divorce action against Clifford A. Owens began in common pleas court this morning. The case is being heard by Judge George B. Scofield.

When the hearing was adjourned at noon Mrs. Owens had been on the stand two and a half hours under direct examination of one of her attorneys, Russell Neppert of Columbus.

Reviews Early Life

After reviewing the early years of their married life, Mrs. Owens' testimony was directed to a number of occasions when, she charged, her husband was intoxicated. She charged he was abusive, relating that on one occasion at their home he threw napkins in her face, and called her abusive names.

She told of accompanying Mr. Owens to the Eaglewood club where, she charged, he obtained liquor. On other occasions, while allegedly under the influence of liquor, he ordered their son Robert to leave home, drove to his home in an intoxicated condition in their automobile which had been damaged in a wreck, and she charged that he forced her to drive him to the home of another woman late one night.

On Armistice day, 1930, he told her he no longer loved her, that he wanted a divorce and would not support her any longer, she testified. On this occasion, he told her he had been sober for six weeks and knew what he was talking about, she continued.

She also testified that whereas she had been receiving an allowance of approximately $1,000 a month beforehand, that he gave her only two small checks between Jan. 1 and Aug. 1 when the court ordered him to pay temporary alimony of $750.

Relied on Friends

She testified regarding his alleged associations with other women. When he ceased furnishing her an allowance, she was forced to rely on the charity of her friends for support, she said.

Mrs. Owens said her husband called her abusive names because she visited his father and mother, and one occasion ordered her to telephone his mother that she was "through with her," which the plaintiff refused to do, she said.

Mrs. Owens' testimony was not finished at noon, indicating that the trial probably will last several days. Counsel for Mrs. Owens has subpoenaed 23 other witnesses and Mr. Owens has called 10 witnesses.

Assisting Mr. Neppert in the direct examination this morning were Fred E. Gutbery, and Howard Gutbery, of the law firm of Gutbery, Sirehis & Gutbery. Mr. Owens is represented by the law firm of Mouser, Young, Mouser & Wiest and Carhart, Warner & Carhart.

The courtroom was crowded throughout the opening session of the hearing.

MARION CASES IN LIMA COURT TODAY

$40,000 Suit Against County Commissioners To Be Heard by Appeals Judges.

Five error proceedings growing out of cases originally tried in common pleas court here were to be reviewed today by the third district court of appeals in Lima.

A number of Marion attorneys were in Lima today to submit briefs in their respective cases.

One action to be reviewed by the court is the $40,000 damage action of Charles E. Lukens, father of Ruth Lukens, one of four school teachers killed when their automobile left Harding highway east of Caledonia and plunged over the abutment of a bridge, against the county commissioners. The court directed a verdict for the defendant when the case was tried here.

Other actions to be presented were those of Florence A. McCombs against David Landes; The C. D. & M. Electric Co. against Nellie Brown; L. W. Aller against the Millard Hunt Co.; Daniel L. Augenstine against Montgomery Ward & Co.

Cox Leads Relief Work.

By The Associated Press

DAYTON, O., Oct. 15—Former Governor James M. Cox, Democratic Presidential candidate in 1920, took the lead last night in organizing Dayton's committee of 100 to carry out President Hoover's relief program. The committee made up of the city's leading business men, is believed to be the first purely community movement in support of the President's program.

Stubborn Coughs Ended by Recipe, Mixed at Home

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs due to colds. It takes but a moment to prepare, costs little, and saves money but it gives real relief even for those dreaded coughs that follow severe cold epidemics

From any druggist get 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey Thus you make a full pint of better remedy than you could buy ready made for three times the cost. It never spoils and tastes as good that even children like it.

Not only does this simple mixture soothe the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease but also it is absorbed into the blood and acts directly upon the bronchial tubes, thus aiding the whole system in throwing off the cough It loosens the germ laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine containing the active agent of creosote in a refined, palatable form Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of severe coughs and bronchial irritations.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Harding Lineup Revamped for Tilt Friday with Findlay

BOOSTER CLUB LAUNCHES DRIVE FOR NEW ATHLETIC FIELD

UPSTATE SCHOOL HAS YETERAN SQUAD TO OPPOSE PRESIDENTS

Winters-Coached Eleven Compiles Brilliant Record in First Four Games.

Let those who are inclined to weep at the misfortunes of Harding High school prepare to shed copious quantities of tears. For Harding High, on Friday of this week, journeys some 55 miles upstate for the doubtful privilege of stepping into the path of one golden horde for a period of approximately 48 minutes; aforesaid golden horde being a football team parading under the banner of Findlay High school.

This Findlay football aggregation, it might as well be understood before going further, is one of the toughest outfits in this section, possibly in the entire commonwealth of Ohio. In four games these little playboys of Jay Winters have romped hither and yon over the greensward for a grand total of 158 points. And during this time, ladies and gentlemen, no opponent of the Findlay organization has lugged the spheroid beyond that line which signifies the collecting of six points. In other words, Findlay has rolled up 158 points while holding the opposition to exactly no points.

Nearly All Veterans

The Findlay team that faces Harding Friday afternoon is practically the same eleven which last fall steam-rollered its way to a 48-0 victory over the Men of Bohyer. The entire backfield is again in uniform, led by the speedy halfback, Beltz, the lad who last year ran Harding's ends dizzy by innumerable wild dashes around the flanks of the Presidents.

In four games to date, Findlay has not used its first string lineup in much more than a half of any one game. Against Columbus South, which Harding deadlocked 6-6, Findlay ran up 20 points in the first period and then coasted to victory in the next three periods, using the second team nearly all of the second half. The record of Findlay so far this season is 28, 62, 38 and 35 against Upper Sandusky, Napoleon, Fremont and Columbus South in the order named.

Henry Iba, cage coach at Northwest Teachers college, Marysville, Mo., played baseball with Danville in the Three-I league this summer.

ROBERT GIVEN a QUARTER

The success of Ohio Wesleyan's football team in its first Buckeye conference start against Denison Saturday of this week is expected to depend in a large measure on the performance of Bobby Given, quarterback; who hails from Steubenville. Given, a letterman, has been competing with a squad of larger and equally experienced veterans but seems to have cinched a berth on the Bishop lineup. He weighs but 154 pounds but what dynamite he packs in that weight!

WESLEYAN IN B. A. A. OPENER SATURDAY, OPPOSING DENISON

Wooster, Akron Struggle Tops Week's Schedule in Ohio Conference.

By The Associated Press

Championship races in two of the state's conferences will draw a big stiffer this week-end while several outstanding games are on deck in the non-title awarding Ohio conference.

Ohio Wesleyan will make its Buckeye Athletic Association start against the Big Red of Denison at Granville. Denison bowed a week ago to Ohio University, the defending champion, but George Bich's crew has hopes of pulling Wesleyan down in the defeated ranks.

In the Northwest conference Findlay, last year's champions but conquered last week by Defiance, will entertain Bluffton tomorrow.

Unbeaten Teams Meet

The Ohio conference schedule is topped by Saturday's struggle between Wooster and Akron, both undefeated this year although Akron has played but once.

Other conference battles will be between Oberlin and Case, Hiram and Ohio Northern, Ashland and Heidelberg, and Capital and Otterbein.

Aside from the Ohio Wesleyan-Denison tilt, Buckeye Association followers will devote much attention to the Simpson-Ohio clash. Simpson, having held Iowa State and Drake to low scores and defeated Parsons, looks like a tartar for the Bobcats.

Miami will take on Georgetown at Oxford and Cincinnati will tackle Marietta in other games involving Buckeye elevens.

Reserve Plays Pitt

Western Reserve will try its hand against another major foe, Pittsburgh, with hopes of holding the score down. Defiance will risk its undefeated record at Manchester, Ind., and Liberty Normal will be Wilmington's home-coming foe.

Six games are scheduled tomorrow night, with West Virginia bringing its best team in years to Dayton in the spotlight. Bethany of West Virginia will meet Muskingum while Wittenberg and Xavier will be host to two Kentucky schools, Transylvania and Centre respectively. Detroit City college will invade Bowling Green. John Carroll will entertain Mercer and Kent State will do battle at Mt. Union.

MAUTZ, CARIS GIVEN POSTS IN BACKFIELD; OTHER SHIFTS MADE

Rathell, Firstenberger Replace Ling, Martin on Forward Wall.

It will be a completely revamped lineup of Harding High players which romps onto the field at Findlay Friday afternoon to do battle with the Golden Horde of Jay Winters. With two backfield regulars on the bench with injuries and several other of the team not showing up as was expected, Coach Dewey Bohyer has made a wholesale shift in the team.

Dick Morgan and "Bo" Guthrie are definitely out of this week's contest. Guthrie will be out for the rest of the season. Morgan may return for play within a couple of weeks. Paul Hunt, another backfield man, is also out for the remainder of the year. Several others are nursing minor injuries but will be ready to start against Findlay.

Coach Bohyer this week is resorting to the practice of interchanging players between two positions, depending on whether the team is on defense or offense. McDaniels, an end, has been moved into the backfield for a blocking halfback on offense and returns to the flank post on defense. Bob Keller, halfback, takes McDaniel's end post on offense. John Pickerel has taken over the duties on the other end, replacing Hagan.

Carol Caris and Bob Mautz have also been given positions in the backfield, Caris at fullback and Mautz at half. Don Lindsey, former fullback, has been moved into Morgan's place at quarter. Mautz replaces Guthrie.

Several changes have also been made in the forward wall of the Presidents. Jack Ling, 195 pound tackle, and Martin 212 pound guard, have been shifted to the second team. Firstenberger will more than likely get the call to start at the vacant tackle post but the choice for guard seems to be Rathell. Clark may also get a fling at duties there.

Harding was put through its last scrimmage before the Findlay encounter yesterday afternoon but did not look particularly impressive. The tackling was ragged and the blocking weak. The first team was kept on the defensive all of the time by Bohyer and although the second team gained little yardage the first eleven did not show a lot of improvement over former weeks.

The game with Findlay will be the only Friday afternoon game of the season for Harding. It is called for 2:30 p. m. in Donnell Memorial stadium at Findlay.

STATE CONCLUDES INTENSIVE DRILLS

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 15—Ohio State university's football team concludes one of its most intensive weeks of practice today, and tonight will go to Ann Arbor for their meeting with Michigan, Saturday.

Scrimmage, plenty of it, tackling, blocking, forward pass defense, new plays and signal practice have been crowded into the last four nights of work.

Coach Sam Willaman is still undecided on his starting backfield. On the line Ferrall and Gillman will play the end positions, Bell and Haubrich at tackles, Gallus and Varner at guards and Smith at center. Cramer will play at quarterback; Hinchman and Holcomb or Keefe and Carroll at halves with Vuchinich at fullback.

Ten of the 17 coaches and assistants in the University of Iowa athletic departments are Hawkeye graduates.

Record Number In Prospect at Banquet Tonight

Everything is in readiness, Commission Secretary Elmer Shaw said today, for the staging tonight of the biggest recreation baseball banquet ever held here. The affair will be staged in the Y. M. C. A. and it is certain that more than 85 persons will attend. With the last minute number of entries that almost always accompanies such an affair, it is probable that nearly 100 persons, possibly more, will attend the dinner.

The four pennant winning teams of Marion recreation baseball will be present as guests of the city softball commission, as will approximately 20 umpires. Any other interested persons are invited to attend but must pay for their own plate. The four pennant winners and the league in which they competed are: First Presbyterians in No. 2 Sunday school league, St Mary's in No. 1 Sunday school, C., D. & M. in the Industrial circuit and Kappas in the Commercial league. The First Presbyterians are also city champions, having defeated the other three teams in a Little World series after the close of the regular league season.

Attorney W. N. Harder has been named toastmaster of the affair tonight. Norris Crissinger, president of the commission will probably award the pennants to the winning teams. The members of the first Presbyterians team will also be given individual medals for their winning of the city championship.

The banquet will get under way at 6 p. m. in the second floor gymnasium of the Y. It will be served by the Ladies' Aid society of the First Reformed church.

HUNTING LAWS

Nelmeyer Warns Sportsmen of Violations of Regulations

The open season for the hunting of ducks, geese, brant and coot is from 12 o'clock noon on Oct. 16 to Nov. 15. Woodcock may be taken from Oct. 15 to Nov. 14, Wilson snipe, jack snipe from Oct. 1 to Dec. 31, Rail from Nov. 1 to Nov. 30, and Gallinule from Oct. 1 to Nov. 30.

There is no open season on deer, quail, ruffled grouse, hen pheasant, dovis, rose and cackling geese, swan, wood duck, eider duck, batturn, sand hill and whooping crane, grebe, gulls, heron, jaegers, loons, murres, petrel and tern.

It is unlawful to hunt during the night time with a dog or to let a dog run at large in the fields or woods from Oct. 15 to Nov. 14. Violators of this order will be prosecuted and the dogs confiscated. This does not apply to working dogs during the daytime.

The above laws are furnished for the benefit of sportsmen and hunters by O. H. Nelmeyer of Prospect, deputy state game protector.

BUCYRUS ATHLETIC COACH IS MARRIED

BUCYRUS, Oct. 15—Announcement has been made here of the marriage at Vanceburg, Ky., Saturday, Oct. 10, of Alex Kish, Bucyrus High school athletic coach and former Wittenberg star athlete, and Miss Margaret Barkdull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barkdull. The service was read by Rev. Ira D. Stout at the Church of Christ parsonage. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kinsell of Shelby.

Mrs. Kish was graduated from Shelby high school in 1927 and later attended school at Valparaiso, Ind. Mr. Kish, in addition to being coach of the local high school, is teacher of seventh grade science.

DEMOCRATS SEEK "VICTORY FUND"

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15—Democratic leaders hope to start their quadrennial quest of the Presidency bulwarked by a $1,500,000 "victory fund."

Jouett Shouse, chairman of the party's national executive committee, estimates $600,000 will be needed to keep the political wheels turning until the next convention, $500,000 to inaugurate the actual campaign, and $400,000 to pay off the 1928 deficit.

The fund campaign will be led by John W. Davis, 1924 Presidential nominee of the party.

HOPE TO HAVE NEW LAYOUT READY FOR PLAY NEXT SEASON

Plans Also Made for Mammoth "Fog Raiser" Oct. 23 Before Bucyrus Game.

Boost Harding athletics! That was the password last night at the second meeting of the newly organized Harding High Boosters club at the Y. M. C. A.

A variety of projects were outlined by the Boosters club last night, the principal one being the construction of a new athletic field for Harding at the site of the proposed new high school building near Willow street off Mt. Vernon avenue in south Marion. Preliminary plans were also made for a Booster club Fog Raiser on the night of Friday, Oct. 23, the night preceding the next home football game with Bucyrus.

No permanent organization has as yet been effected by the Booster club. Officers will be elected within the next few weeks. In the absence of a president, attorney John Weidemann is acting chairman of the group.

Approximately 25 of the city's business and professional men attended last night's meeting of the newly organized club. Among these were representatives of the city and county offices, and Harding High school.

Plans were launched at the meeting for the construction of a new athletic field. Plans and specifications have already been drawn and are in possessio nof Harding officials. These plans will be gone over within a few days by Principal K. H. Marshall, City Engineer Tom Cathers, County Surveyor Cecil Leavens, Dr. F. R. Mann, chairman of the city park board, and Councilman W. G. Slack, for the purpose of determining the approximate cost of building the field. City and county officials and representatives of several other organizations last night pledged their aid in doing anything possible toward the building of the field. It is hoped to have the field ready for play by the 1932 season.

The Fog Raiser planned for the city on Oct. 23 will be the first of its kind held here in several years. The club has not determined where it will be held yet. It will commence at 7 p. m. with the high school team, school officials and school band all present. All other persons interested in the team will be invited to attend.

The Booster club will attend the Harding-Bucyrus game on Oct. 24 in a body. Principal K. H. Marshall has promised them a reserved section in the Harding bleachers.

The club will meet again next Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. to go over the plans of the new athletic field with the committee named above and to complete plans for the Fog Raiser before the Bucyrus game.

ROCKNE HONORED BY DONORS OF TROPHY

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 15—The new trophy to be awarded to the 1931 national championship football team, on the basis of the Dickinson rating system, will be known as the Knute K. Rockne memorial.

The first edition of the award was won permanently last year by Notre Dame, the first institution to win it three times over a period of 10 years. Its donor, Jack F. Rissman, has offered another one under the same conditions, with Professor Frank G. Dickinson of the University of Illinois, who formulated the rating system, decided to make it a memorial to the late Notre Dame football wizard.

Notre Dame won possession of the first trophy by ranking as the best eleven in the country in 1924, 1929 and 1930.

Seven all-conference southwest Missouri high school football players are enrolled for this fall at Drury college, Springfield, Mo.

Chicago Host to Yale

Yale's big blue team meets the University of Chicago in the Maroon's own back yard Oct. 17. The Yale team comes west for the first time in history in honor of Alonzo Stagg, one time Eli All-American, celebrating his fortieth year as Chicago's coach. Capt. Sam Horwitz, guard, will lead the Midway forces against Pat Crowley, hard plunging back and the rest of the Yale crew. Paul Stagg, son of the "Grand Old Man" and regular Maroon quarterback, has been out with injuries but may get to play against the forces from the Atlantic coast.

Traditional Rivalry To Swell Big 10 Attendance

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 15—Western conference football attendance figures for 1931 will take a big jump Saturday with two capacity or near capacity crowds just about assured.

The traditional rivalry between Michigan and Ohio State, probably the warmest in the Big Ten, has all the elements to nduce a sellout in Michigan's huge stadium and 70,000 or more spectators are expected to watch the Wolverines and Buckeyes struggle to remain in the championship race.

There have been few sellouts at the University of Chicago in recent seasons, but the appearance of little Albie Booth and his Yale squad, along with the ceremonies in connection with Amos Alonzo Stagg's fortieth consecutive year of coaching the Maroons, have stirred the imaginations of the customers to the extent that 50,000 spectators, all Stagg field will accommodate, are virtually certain.

Badgers Meet Purdue

Wisconsin and Purdue, another pair of teams with elimination from the championship scheme facing them, will battle at Madison, and another 25,000 probably will be added to the attendance figures. Iowa will hold its homecoming at Iowa City, with Indiana as its foe, which probably will be good for an additional 25,000 or more. The appearance of the University of California's southern branch at Northwestern, does not rate as a big attraction, but Wildcat followers are proud of their team and the contest at Evanston should attract about 40,000. Illinois and Bradley will play before the Illini student body and, plus about 25,000 Illinois school children.

Plans for Saturday's skirmishes are all laid and light workouts will be the rule in the camps. Michigan will send the same lineup that edged out Chicago last week, against Ohio, but Coach Harry Kipke is confident it will look better this week. The Wolverines plan to use Harry Newman's passes against the Buckeyes again and will enter an improved Ohio running attack.

Hope for Good Weather

Wisconsin is hoping for better weather in order to fire an assortment of passes at Purdue, while the Boilermakers are planning to rely on their powerful running game, plus Fred Heckmans passing if it is necessary. Iowa still is hunting for reserves to replace injured linemen and Indiana with two weeks of preparation, is expected to spoil the Hawkeye homecoming.

Chicago has a wide open game just about ready for Yale and if it works, a high scoring contest may be produced to thrill the customers.

ROBIN REED SIGNED FOR RETURN MATCH HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Alex Williams To Meet Oregon Welterweight on Shovel Program.

Robin Reed the sensational Reedsport, Ore. welterweight who thrilled fans at Shovel gym with his victory over Jack Domar here Monday night will return to the gym mat on next Monday night when he headlines the weekly mat card opposed by Alex Williams, New York Dutchman.

Reed and Williams will travel two best out of three falls with a two-hour limit.

Reed in his sensational win over the rough, tough Domar showed wrestling fans of this section some of the greatest matwork they have ever witnessed in the two years that the mat game has flourished in Marion.

In and out of holds with a rapidity that was startling, Reed showed plainly why mat critics all over the country are hailing him as the "uncrowned champion of the welterweights."

It also takes no great stretch of imagination to picture him battling his way through the ranks of the amateur of the world and winning the Olympic 145 pound title; for this fellow literally burns up a wrestling pad.

In meeting Williams, Reed will be taking on a tried and true veteran of the wrestling pad. The Dutch star has had many years experience in the mat game and for several years coached the wrestling team of the New York Athletic club in addition to cutting a wide swath in the 145-pound ranks in the east. He should give Reed one of his toughest matches since he invaded the middle west over three months ago.

The semi-final of this show will send Nick Bobrinis the rough house Greek from Newark, N. J. against Jack Murphy of Denver in a two-fall, 45-minute limit engagement.

WIDOW PLANS HUNT "FOR REST OF HOARD"

Eccentric New Yorker Insists Hidden Fortune Totals More Than Million.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15—Just as soon as her ankles get better, Mrs. Ida Wood intends to "go out and look for the rest of my money."

The folds of her old-fashioned gowns and hiding places in her hotel room already have yielded a fortune in currency and bonds—nearly a million dollars. The 70-pound, 93-year-old lady insists, however, that there is more.

Her ankle weakness, physicians said, is due to lack of nutrition during the months she lived frugally in her simple quarters with bundles of $10,000 banknotes, diamonds and other costly jewels within arm's reach.

Mrs. Wood, after years of living on such a slender budget as to call for the purchase of a single egg at a time, would be dismayed at the amount already expended in her behalf since the court has taken over her affairs.

Bills filed with the court and approved, it was reported today, include a physician's fee of $3,800 and $7,900 to a detective agency which has maintained guards at the hotel since last March.

The bond of Mrs. Wood's guardian, Otis Wood, was raised from $225,000 to $1,000,000 yesterday, after other claimants to relationship had filed protests. Wood is a nephew. The opposing faction is headed by Mrs. William C. Shields, a step-granddaughter.

Five trunks belonging to Mrs. Wood were opened yesterday, and another small fortune in gems was found.

$15,000 "LOVE" SUIT HEARING UNDER WAY

BUCYRUS, Oct. 15—The $15,000 alienation of affections suit of Mrs. Jessie Schiefer against Helen and Grover Nelson of Bucyrus, which went on trial in common pleas court Wednesday morning, entered upon its second day today before Common Pleas Judge C. U. Ahl. Mrs. Schiefer claims that Mrs. Nelson alienated the affections of her husband, Curtis Schiefer, and that Grover Nelson encouraged the affair.

Examiners Organize.

UPPER SANDUSKY, Oct. 15—Superintendent H. H. Silverman of Nevada was elected president of the Wyandot county board of school examiners at the reorganization meeting. H. F. Davidson of Carey was elected vice president and Superintendent Ralph Broeda, clerk of the board.

FRED KULL DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Former Marion Man Claimed in Los Angeles.

Word was received here today of the death in Los Angeles, Calif., yesterday of Fred J. Kull, a former resident of Marion. Mr. Kull died at the age of 71. A complication of diseases caused his death.

Mr. Kull was born in Germany and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Kull. In 1887 he married Pauline Mauer, also a native of Germany, who survives him.

Other survivors are Fred A. Kull, August Kull, and Louis Kull of Marion, and Paul and Frank Kull of California, sons; Mrs. Charles Starcher of Los Angeles, a daughter; Mrs. Caroline Myers of Prospect street, a sister, and August Kull of Marion, a brother.

Funeral arrangements were not known here today.

METHODIST LEAGUE OF GALION MEETS

Monthly Session Held in Social Hall of Church.

GALION, Oct. 15—The members of the Market Street Methodist League enjoyed their monthly meeting last night in the social hall of the church. Miss Dorothea King was in charge of the business session. Plans were made for a Hallowe'en party to be given to which members of the Sixteen church will be invited. The program included a violin solo by Miss Ruth Shoffner and a reading by Miss Margarette Heinlein. Refreshments were served by Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Heinlein and family.

The monthly meeting of the Alpha Bible class of the First Lutheran church was held yesterday in the parlors of the church. Mrs. Henry Heiser was leader of the devotionals followed by the business session which was in charge of Mrs. Martin Dapper. It was reported that 208 cans of fruit and vegetables had been canned by the members of the class together with a quantity of jellies to be sent to the Osterlins orphans home in Springfield. Plans were discussed for the annual harvest home festival which will be held the last of the month. The question of the class merging with the men's class was discussed but it was decided in the contrary. The annual election of officers will be held at the November meeting.

All of the members of the Married Maids club were present last evening when they were entertained at the home of Mrs. Fred Connelly on north Market street. Bridge was played at two tables and colors of pink and white were used in the serving of delicious refreshments.

SCHOOL VACATION DATES ANNOUNCED

KENTON, Oct. 15—The dates of vacations for the school year were announced by Superintendent D. B. Clark. The Northwestern Ohio Teachers' meeting which will be held in Toledo, Oct. 30 and 31, will constitute the first fall vacation with school dismissed on Friday. In November there will be no school on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26 and the Friday following, Nov. 27. The Christmas vacation will being on Dec. 24 and will end Jan. 4. The schools will be dismissed on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22. The Easter vacation will constitute Good Friday and Monday following.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Plans Are Completed for Transient Lunch Room

Salvation Army Granted Use of Armory for Relief Work; Captain Hunter Outlines Plans for Operation of Feeding Place.

Work will be begun immediately to equip a lunch room for transients to be opened in the armory on west Church street under the auspices of the Salvation Army, it was announced today by Captain John Hunter who is in charge of the local work.

Use of the armory was offered by Captain John Mason of Company D, 166th Infantry with the consent of General Frank D. Henderson of Columbus with whom Captain Hunter conferred yesterday. It is planned to open the room early next week.

Instead of being known as a soup kitchen the place will be known as the transient lunch room, Captain Hunter stated today. Cooperation of bakeries, meat markets and grocery stores has been pledged and three trucks have been placed at the disposal of Captain Hunter for the collection of contributions of farm produce and other edibles.

Any one wishing to contribute to the maintenance of the lunch room is asked to communicate with Captain Hunter and men will call for the articles. Persons collecting in the interest of the lunch room will hold cards authorized by Captain Hunter and contributors are asked to give their contributions for this purpose only to those holding cards.

It is planned to have only one man in charge of the work and transients will be asked to assist by washing dishes, paring potatoes and any other work to be done in connection with the place. It also is planned to have a wood yard where men may be given the "wood test." Wood prepared in this way will be sold to those able to purchase it and will also be contributed free of charge to needy families. Three meals will be served at the lunch room each day. Hours are 7 to 8:30 a. m., 11:30 a. m. to 1 p. m., 4:30 to 6 p. m.

Business men in the city will be provided with cards to be given to persons soliciting them for assistance and these will be recognized at the lunch room. Business men wishing tickets are asked to call Captain Hunter at 7168.

The lunch room is a part of the army's plan of aiding in the assistance of the needy transients and Captain Hunter has emphasized that the lunch room as well as the lodging provided in the Salvation Army headquarters are for men who are temporarily unemployed and not for the professional bum. The lodging rooms, which are partially equipped with beds, will house only their capacity, he stated.

HOOVER DEMAND FOR BUDGET CUT GRANTED

Navy Submits New Figures, Showing Stash in Total.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15—Meeting President Hoover's demand for greater economy, the navy today completed and transmitted to the White House a revised budget, slashing substantially the appropriations to be requested for the fiscal year, 1933.

Secretary Adams let it be known that the reduction made was not quite $61,000,000, the figure understood to represent President Hoover's wishes. He would not, however, discuss the new proposal further. Originally the navy asked for $401,000,000.

ARREST MAN AFTER FIGHT WITH AGENT

By International News Service

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 15—Caught after escaping arrest by engaging in a fight with state prohibition officers, Walter Messick of Hebron, O., today was bound over to the federal grand jury on charges of selling whisky. State prohibition officers said Messick used his fists to escape from F. L. Parham when the latter tried to arrest him in Morrow county.

Business Man Hurt.

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 15—William Zollman, owner and manager of wholesale confectionery in Marysville, was injured in an automobile accident when returning from a business trip to Delaware. Zollman and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Levy of Cleveland, occupants of the other car, were taken to a Delaware hospital. Zollman suffered severe injuries to his back and cuts and bruises.

LABOR FEDERATION CASTS BEER VOTE

By The Associated Press

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 15—The American Federation of Labor reaffirmed its stand today for legalization of 2.75 per cent beer at the coming session of congress.

Two motions which attempted to obtain the federation's support for repeal of the Volstead act and the Eighteenth amendment were defeated. The executive council's recommendation for beer was adopted without debate.

PROTESTS KENTON GAS VALUATIONS

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 15—Protest against the tentative valuations fixed on the Kenton and Lima properties by the state utilities commission last month has been filed with the commission by the West Ohio Gas Co. The company is appealing the rates set up in municipal ordinances in the two cities.

SEEK FIRST VICTORY

UPPER SANDUSKY, Oct. 15—After suffering four straight defeats, the local high school football teams journey to Fostoria Friday afternoon for an attempt to mark up its first win of the season.

Fat Men

I don't care how fat you are or how much you hate to get out and walk a couple of miles. If you will take one half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning for 4 weeks and cut out pastries, sugar and fatty meats—

You will feel so good—so energetic and the urge of activity will be so great, that you will immensely enjoy a daily walk of several miles—and lose fat.

While you are losing fat you will be gaining in energy—so endurance—in ambition.

Just try one 85c bottle of Kruschen Salts; it will last you 4 weeks. After you have taken one bottle the old arm chair won't hold you any more—you'll want to be up and doing—you'll enjoy working—you'll sleep like a top and by reducing surplus fat ought to live years longer. Get Kruschen at Heaney & Cooper or any live druggist in America with the understanding that you must be joyfully satisfied or money back.

W. R. Daniels of Richmond Hill, N. Y., writes: "After 2 bottles of Kruschen, I've removed 3 inches from my belt, feel 25% more active, mind is clearer, eruptions have disappeared. Am 46 years old and feel 20 years younger. I get up feeling 100%. Kruschen sure is great!"—Adv.

for COLDS

more people buy Bromo Quinine than any other remedy

You can soothe the discomforts of colds in various ways, but the only sensible thing to do is to drive the infection out of the system—and quickly.

Bromo Quinine treats the cause—not merely the discomfort.

Its quinine purifies and tones up the system while its gentle laxative effect eliminates the impurities.

It pays to insist on this safe, proven remedy.

Calves, 450; better grades near steady at 11.00 downward, but slow at 50 cents or more lower on kinds to sell 9.00 downward to 5.00.

Sheep, 1,600; steady; desirable lambs largely 7.00@7.25, kinds to sell 7.50 or above relatively scarce, slow on throwouts at downward to 5.00 in increased numbers.

The Stars Say—

For Friday, Oct. 16.

THE sidereal operations for this day point to much anxiety and vexation, with frustrations in business and a slight menace of fraud, cunning and underhand dealings or treachery in connection with a ring or secret organization. There may also be a sudden disruption or disturbance, having a reaction on the health. Social, domestic or affectional relations may fortuitously offset these portents.

Those whose birthday it is may encounter a year of many vexations, strife, anxiety and secret or underhand frustrations or intrigues, which will bring or peace of mind although personal satisfactions may offset these portentous situations. A child born on this day may have a physical make-up or constitution reacting on the mental attitude, either distorting it or inciting peculiar imaginations or unorthodox views. It should be given a good, careful education, with much stress on bodily development and soundness.

Today in Marion Markets

Groceries, Produce, Meat, Grain, Livestock

The supply of homegrown strawberries which appeared early this week on local markets is steadily diminishing, dealers report. The price has fallen a little, with many dealers asking 20 cents a pint and 35 cents a quart. These berries are of the everbearing type and are reported to be of good quality. Dealers expect them to disappear entirely after the first hard freeze.

More seasonable are the hickory nuts and chestnuts which are now plentiful on the market. The demand is good, dealers report, with a good quality selling for 25 cents a pound for chestnuts and five cents a pound for hickory nuts on many markets.

Homegrown celery remains about the same on the market with the average price about 10 cents a bunch. Most dealers are expecting the Giant Paschal variety of northern Ohio celery to appear in a day or two.

Sweet potatoes dropped a little today, with many dealers asking 15 cents for six pounds. The supply and quality are good and the demand is steady, they report. Bulk turnips are also slightly lower in price, with the average at three pounds for 10 cents. The supply is plentiful with a good demand.

WHEAT PRICES SKID LOWER

Corn Records Advance; Liverpool Quotations in Unexpected Drop.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 15—Wheat averaged lower and corn higher early today. Liverpool wheat quotations showed more of a decline than had been expected. Black sea exports of wheat were larger than either a week or a year ago, with Russia asserted to be again offering wheat. Opening at ¼ cent off to ¼ up, wheat later underwent a general sag. Corn opened unchanged to ¾ advance and subsequently rose all around.

Acting as somewhat an offset to augmented shipments from the Black Sea, including Russia, was a sharp decrease of Argentine wheat exports. Tending further to bring about rallies following price setbacks were Winnipeg messages telling of wheat purchases for China. Comparative firmness of securities was also a steadying factor.

Wheat bulls drew attention to Liverpool advices declaring that maximum pressure of wheat supplies had now probably been experienced, and that European continental demand should become more important. It was added that more than one-half of the world's wheat requirements were still to be obtained from North America. Corn was bearishly affected by official reports that the Iowa corn crop was beyond any possible damage from frost, and that all indications pointed to a crop of high quality. Oats eased with corn. Provisions were firm in the absence of pressure to sell.

C. OF C. PLANS DRIVE TO AID MERCHANTS

Will Sponsor Campaign To Acquaint Consumer with Retailer's Problems.

Details of a six-week campaign sponsored by the United States chamber of commerce to promote a better understanding among consumers of problems of the retailer will be explained to Marion merchants in a meeting Friday noon at the Marion club by W. D. Brown, executive vice president of the local chamber he announced today.

During the campaign, six nationally known women will speak on Thursdays at 12 a. m. over the Columbia Broadcasting System and many other independent radio stations on the problems of the retailer. The campaign will be directed particularly toward women, as women do a large part of the shopping, Mr Brown said.

Consumers as a whole know very little about the functions and operations of stores in which they spend their money, Mr Brown said.

"It is our plan," Mr Brown said "to inform the consumer of her importance in the business life of the community and nation; to clear up a number of popular misconceptions of retailing that exist in so many persons' minds and to stress the value of a deeper understanding of the interdependence of consumer and retailer in terms of benefits to both. In other words we proposed to take the consumer in as a partner whose dividends will be better merchandise and a greater satisfaction in shopping."

Shot When Robbery Attempt in Cleveland Home is Resisted.

By Interconstinental News Service

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 15—Two gunmen who committed deliberate murder when refused entrance to a suburban home so that they could rob guests playing cards, were the objects of an intensive police manhunt here today while another victim of the robbery, a woman, was recovering from blackjack wounds on the head.

Wesley Anderson, 55, a roomer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Brodie, was the victim of the robbers' guns. He was deliberately shot down as he started to shut the front door of the residence in the faces of the gunmen when they asked "to buy a drink."

Mrs Brodie was struck over the head when she started to resist the attempts of the pair to rob herself and her guests after the men had killed Anderson and forced their way into the living room where the card game was in progress. She was not seriously hurt.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT SHOWS SMALL DROP

September Total is 6,195 as Compared with 6,304 Last Year.

The monthly enrollment in Marion public schools for September was 6,195, as compared with 6,304 in September of 1929, the monthly report issued from the superintendent's office shows.

Of the enrollment, the average daily attendance was 5,997.1 or 97.0. The percent of attendance in the same month last year was 97.7.

Five less cases of tardiness were reported for last month than in the report of September a year ago. Last month, 108 pupils were tardy, and in the same month in 1929, 108 were tardy.

The number of pupils perfect in attendance shows an increase of 56. The figures show that last month 4 716 pupils attending school had a perfect attendance record, comparing favorably with 4,652 who were perfect in attendance in September of 1929.

Teachers made 287 home visits last month and the schools received 488 visitors.

The percent of attendance in all schools was above 96 per cent, with the Pearl street building leading with an average of 98.8 per cent. Following are the per cents of attendance in the 10 schools.

Pearl Street 98.3, Harding High 96.4, Indiana Avenue 96.3, Greenwood 96.3, Vernon Junior High 96.2, State Street 96.1, Oakland Heights 96, Oak Street 97.5, Diner Avenue 97.4, Central Junior High 97.1, Mark Street 97.1, New Junior High 96.7, North Main Street 96.7, Glenwood 96.2 Forest Lawn 96.9, Silver Street 95.7.

CO-ED'S DISMISSAL APPEAL IN COURT

By The Associated Press

HAMILTON, O., Oct. 15—The first district court of appeals Wednesday heard arguments in the case of Jean West of Portsmouth a former Miami university co-ed, against trustees of that institution, the question being whether or not a student not meeting scholastic requirements can be dismissed. Miss West was dismissed from Miami last year and took her case to common pleas court where she won. The state appealed.

Attorney General Gilbert Bettman and Assistant Attorney Earl R. Beaver represented the tax supported institution.

"The right of a university," argued Bettman, "to stop a student for failure to meet reasonable scholastic standards seems to me to be inherent in all universities.

"Denial of this right," the attorney general continued, "would inevitably lead to the cluttering up of the university with students quadrennial, and in a few years Ohio's institutions of higher learning would cease to be universities in any real sense."

Cherry Tree Blooms.

MT VICTORY, Oct. 15—A cherry tree in the yard owned by Everett Coy on east Marion street is bearing new leaves and blossoms. The foliage is a pale green, but the blossoms are perfect and abundant.

. . . minutes seemed like hours . . . the "punch" to finish the day gone

TODAY, please take a moment to find out why you are sluggish or low in spirits.

It is not easy to be "up and doing" when that body of yours seems to rebel against work or play.

So often the reason is simple—that good body of ours has "run-down" under the strain of our way of living . . . pressure of work and worry.

Those important precious red-blood-cells that mean so much to vitality become lowered in count . . . the hemoglobin percentage begins to fall and we wonder "what is the matter"

That "tired feeling" may be a warning . . . so are pimples, boils and paleness. A general run-down condition means a lack of normal resistance to infection and disease. A lagging appetite often leads to underweight and ill health.

For generations S.S.S. as a tonic has been helping people gain New Strength, better health and happiness. Its successful record of over 100 years in restoring strength and vitality to the blood surely warrants your giving it a good trial.

Why not start taking S.S.S. today!—the large size represents a price saving.

WILL APPOINT NUTRITIONIST

Red Cross Plans To Hire School Expert for Three Months.

Plans to appoint a nutrition expert for the city schools for a period of at least three months were announced this morning by Miss Margaret Dowd, executive secretary of the Red Cross, following a meeting of the nutrition committee of the Marion county chapter at Red Cross headquarters yesterday afternoon.

Whether she will be continued after the three months will depend upon the financial condition of the chapter at that time, Miss Dowd said.

Just who the nutritionist will be had not been definitely determined today. She will be supplied by the national Red Cross at Washington, D. C., and is expected will be sent here at once.

The plan of employing a full time nutritionist for the schools was established two years ago and was financed from the Community fund. After the fund failed to reach the prescribed goal this year, it was thought the employment of a full time nutritionist would be impossible.

Conditions which have, however, made the employment of such a nurse more vital than in previous years, resulted a nutritionist being obtained for three months.

Miss Esther Treat, who served as nutritionist last year, resigned to accept a position as director of health education in the schools at Long Beach, N. Y.

Are You Watching Your Blood Pressure

Almost every case of apoplexy is aggravated by spells of indigestion, often accompanied by dizziness, especially after eating heavy foods or a too hearty meal.

If you are beginning to be troubled by slight digestive upsets—if you have pain or other distress after eating—if you suffer from sick headaches or dizzy spells—

Start taking a tablespoonful of Dare's Mentha Pepsin before meals. By replenishing your scanty gastric juice and easing the load on a tired stomach, Dare's keeps your stomach from getting out of order.

No conscientious druggist would pretend for a moment that any stomach remedy could absolutely prevent apoplexy. But he will tell you that by keeping your digestion running along smoothly, you are doing much to lessen the danger of an attack.

Heaney & Cooper and all good druggists guarantee Dare's to overcome indigestion or money back.—Adv.

TEACHER WED

Dorothy Hall Becomes Bride of Cyrus Breece at Radnor.

RADNOR, Oct. 13 — The marriage of Miss Dorothy Hall and Cyrus Breece was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Reformed church. Rev E E Young read the service. They were attended by the brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Birney McKee.

Mrs. Breece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hall of Hyatts, is a graduate of the Hyatts High school, attended Ohio university, and taught at Radnor for the past two years. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Breece of Horseshoe road. He is a grower for the Letherman Nursery Co. at North Canton. After a short trip through the east, Mr. and Mrs. Breece will be at home in North Canton.

Entertains Class.

Mrs Raymond Myers of the Delaware pike entertained members of the Search Light class of First Reformed church last night. Mrs. Robert W. Hucke led the devotions. Mrs. C. W. Baker presided at a short business meeting. Mrs. Russell McEvoy was a guest. Lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs F. R. Hayman of Nelson street will entertain Nov. 11.

Brought Home.

Miss Ruby Cramer was brought to her home at 962 Cherry street yesterday afternoon from Good Samaritan hospital in Galion where she was taken following an automobile accident Sunday afternoon. Miss Cramer suffered a fractured pelvic bone. She is improving, the family reported this morning, and is able to receive visitors at any time.

"THE SQUAW MAN," FAMOUS ON STAGE, BILLED AT PALACE

BY MALLIE HOGUE

"The Squaw Man," rated as one of the best pictures of the month in which it was reviewed, comes to the Palace Friday and Saturday.

WARNER BAXTER

Warner Baxter, who hasn't been seen here since "Daddy Long Legs," has the title role, in a cast which includes such well known actors and actresses as Lupe Velez, Elinor Boardman, Charles Bickford, Roland Young, Paul Cavanagh, Raymond Hatton, Julia Faye, and F. Farrell McDonald.

William Faversham first created the role which Baxter will portray, 25 years ago in Wallack's theater in New York city. "The Squaw Man" is one of the famous American stage plays, written by Edwin Milton Royle. It has been played in 26 languages.

"The Squaw Man" has been made for the screen three times with Cecil B DeMille directing every time. The first picture in 1913 had a cast including Dustin Farnum and Winifred Kingston. When it was made a second time in 1918, Elliott Dexter, Katherine MacDonald, Jack Holt, Noah Beery, the late Theodore Roberts, Monte Blue, Raymond Hatton and Julia Faye had leading roles.

ELISSA LANDI DOES GOOD WORK IN ROLE IN MARION PICTURE

Elissa Landi does quite a dramatic role in "Wicked," closing at the Marion tonight, and does it well.

Because she tries to protect her husband from the police and in doing so accidentally shoots a detective, she is sent to prison as an accomplice of her husband who has become mixed with a gang of crooks and in robbing a bank, kills a detective. The husband, Theodore Von Eltz, is killed by policemen. She is given a reprieve in prison that her baby may be born outside, and gives the baby to a childrens home to keep for her until her prison term is up.

Victor McLaglen, an old friend, hears of her trouble and comes all the way from Australia, where he has become immensely wealthy, and aids in securing her release from prison. She finds that her baby has been adopted by a wealthy couple, Irene Rich and Oscar Apfel, and kidnaps her. Again she is mixed with the police, but McLaglen convinces the couple that her claim to the baby is greater than theirs. The ending is happy. The story offers Landi dramatic possibilities which she plays up to splendidly.

A Mickey Mouse comedy, "Fishin' Around," a travel picture of Cairo, Egypt, a newsreel and a comedy are on the bill.

REAL COWBOY IN MARION WESTERNER

Sam Garrett, one of the famed cowboys of real life, has a role in "Flying Lariats," the picture showing at the Marion Friday and Saturday. Wally Wales and Buzz Barton are featured.

Garrett is the only cowboy in the world to win the recognized world's championship fancy roping contest at the Cheyenne Frontier days celebration six times. He has performed before the King of England and his feats have attracted the admiration of presidents. He was featured with Will Rogers in Europe—both of whom made their start at the Jack Mulhall ranch in Oklahoma. He has appeared with the 101 Wild West, Ranch, Buffalo Bill's Wild West, Pawnee Bill's Wild West and Ringling Brothers. He was featured for six years at the Madison Square garden in New York.

Bonnie Gray, woman rodeo champion, has a part in the picture.

To Attend Meeting.

Ten representatives of Buckeye Aerie No 337, F. O. E. will attend a district Eagle's meeting in Delaware Sunday afternoon. The meeting was announced at a lodge meeting last night. Two candidates were initiated and four applications for membership were received. A smoker and social time followed the lodge meeting, with entertainment by Landon's Hawaiians. The lodge will meet in one week.

Fire Hazards Few, Chief Finds in Annual Tour

All Industrial and Commercial Plants in City Inspected by Department; McFarland Hits at Lights Strung on Cords.

Exceptionally good conditions regarding fire hazards in both industrial and commercial plants was reported by Fire Chief McFarland today in a summary of the annual inspection just being completed

Eliminate Hazards

Factor executives, the chief said, are to be especially commended for the care taken to eliminate fire hazards, while among the stores the greatest offense, as disclosed by the inspection, was the use of light cord in stringing temporary lights. The firemen found 26 stores in which temporary lights had been strung and which were forming a fire hazard.

A followup of these inspections being made by the chief this week, shows however that all but 10 have responded to suggestions made by the firemen and have remedied the conditions. The names of those who flatly refuse to eliminate these hazards, will be turned over to inspectors from the fire marshal's office.

The old rubbish pile, which in years gone by was the source of many fires, has been practically eliminated, the chief said. In the inspection of the entire city but five places were found where rubbish piles were permitted, and these are being removed this week. The firemen reported two places where the furnace was too close to the ceiling of the basement for safety, one place where a stove pipe had been extended through a window and another where several open barrels of oil were stored near a building.

Condemns Practice

The use of light cord for stringing temporary lights was emphatically condemned by the chief. "Light cord was never intended for this purpose" he declared. "It was intended for use on drop lights where only a short piece was needed, and when used for stringing lights, it becomes a very dangerous fire hazard. It is only a light wire and not heavy enough to carry the voltage for any distance without danger."

"We find cases where the wire has been fastened to wooden window or door frames by driving a nail between the two strands" the chief continued. "This is highly dangerous. The nail removes some of the insulation and the wire immediately becomes a serious fire hazard. Electricity has become so common people are losing sight of its dangerous properties."

Another Picture of Needs of Worthy

Lack of physical exercise which comes with work and of lack of food have demoralized many Marion men both physically and mentally, as the case history from the Family Welfare society offices, given below, shows. The necessity for support in the Welfare society is shown in this case history, from which all names have been omitted.

Recently a man was put to work by the Family Welfare society after nearly a year and a half of a jobless existence. Officials feared building up muscle at the time that the man would not be able to do the work because his once husky constitution had been weakened severely by lack of work, and the food he has had in that time has been negligible in quantity.

But through perseverance and the thought that his four small children were hungry, he carried through the two days' work and earned his pay.

Soap and water are the by-words in this man's home. Through thick and thin his wife has stood by him and their children, never whimpering, courageously going about her work of keeping the children's clothes clean and patched and darned.

He was a good worker in one of Marion's plants but was laid off. It was seven months before he was able to get even a day or two of work a week, and this work only lasted two months. Now he is without a job again with the prospect of the coming winter facing him.

The husband and wife lived with relatives until their family increased and they moved into a small home and started to buy their furniture. When he lost his job, he could not pay on the furniture and it was taken from them.

The Welfare society gave them mattresses, a stove, chairs and a table, and that is all they have to remind them of the once new, shining furniture which was so nearly theirs before unemployment wrecked their happiness.

HERE'S A FORD OWNER'S TEST THAT MAKES THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SOHIO ETHYL AND ORDINARY GAS

"clearer than any advertising can picture it."

I have been using heat-tempered Extra-Ethyl since its introduction but without definite figures on results until a recent trip to St. Louis demonstrated convincingly that the claims made for heat-tempered gasolines are more than true, actual facts—and comparison of performance makes the difference between ordinary gas and heat-tempered fuels clearer than any advertising can picture it.

To Indianapolis, Sohio Extra-Ethyl was used—Results:

Top Speed	Seventy miles per hour
Average Speed	Forty-eight miles per hour
Fuel Consumption	Twenty miles per gallon

From Indianapolis, with different fuel, a premium price gasoline, the change in performance was so great as to be astounding:

Top Speed	Sixty-nine miles per hour
Average Speed	Thirty-seven miles per hour
Fuel Consumption	Sixteen miles per gallon

Same car, same driver, same weather conditions. Only the fuel was changed, but what a difference heat-tempering makes in gasoline.

Now I know from actual figures why Sohio heat-tempered gasolines are preferred by hundreds of thousands of Ohio motorists, and it is easy to understand why the performance of my car has, like the sale of those wonderful gasolines, been steadily on the "go and up". (Actual letter from owner of 1928 Ford Coupe in Akron)

"CHEVIE" OWNER CLAIMS 19⅞ MILES PER GALLON ON SOHIO . . . and has proof.

Speedometer read 15,008 at Cincinnati, Ohio, and 15,126 at Indianapolis, Ind., a total of 118 miles. Left Cincinnati with ten gallons Sohio Extra-Ethyl and had four gallons left in Indianapolis. I used six gallons for 118 miles at an average of 19⅞ miles per gallon. Some of my friends say impossible but I have proof.

Events happened that night to make my test real. I was nearing "three mile hill" with bright lights burned out and no dimmers. I crept up three mile hill without a knock or stutter at 15 miles per hour. Lucky I had good gas or it would have been three miles in second gear. I bought new lights at a "bus stop" and made the last 52 miles in 55 minutes. (The motor just singing a song). This was a real test to me—the nonfaltering power that carried me "in high" over three mile hill in the dark and the final "zip" of speed with the average of 19⅞ miles per gallon for a 1929 Chevrolet "6" with over 15,000 miles to its credit and whose engine head has never been removed is reason a plenty for my continued use of Sohio Ethyl gasoline.

(Actual letter from Chevrolet owner of Cincinnati)

Reports from folks-on-the-road show that they get 3 extra miles from every gallon of Sohio!

Out of the thousands of other letters received from Ford and Chevrolet owners during the last month:

4,290 Ford owners reported average increased miles-per-gallon with Sohio heat-tempered gasolines of . . . . . 3.8 miles per gallon

3,238 Chevrolet owners reported average increased miles-per-gallon with Sohio heat-tempered gasolines of . . . 3.2 miles per gallon

For all makes of cars other than Ford and Chevrolets the average increased mileage reported was . . . . . 3.1 miles per gallon

"Sohio Wins on Other Points, Too"

. . . say folks-on-the-road

47% of all the folks-on-the-road who wrote in to Sohio (regardless of the makes of their cars) preferred Sohio heat-tempered gasolines because they give "more power".

42% made special mention of Sohio's "smoother, faster pick-up".

34% had noticed that Sohio made their "engines run cooler".

42% were loud in their praise of Sohio "knockless quality".

35% preferred them because they gave "far better hill-climbing performance".

32% gave Sohio heat-tempered gasoline the laurels for all-round "better performance".

May we suggest? The best way to check these facts is to drive to the nearest Sohio Station today and test a tankful of Sohio heat-tempered gasoline against the gasoline you are using now.

Six cooked potatoes, 1 small onion, mayonnaise, French dressing, salt and pepper, lettuce, chopped parsley.

Dice the potatoes. Mix with them enough French dressing to moisten them well. Add the chopped parsley, minced onion, and some salt and pepper. Let stand for 2 hours if possible. Then mix in some mayonnaise and serve on crisp lettuce. Garnish with pimento and parsley. Serves six.

Prune Bread

Two tablespoons shortening, 2 tablespoons citron peel, 30 large prunes, water, 1½ cups whole wheat flour, 1 cup white flour, ¾ cup brown sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 2½ teaspoons baking powder, milk.

Wash the prunes. Cover with water and soak over night. Dry, stone, and cut into pieces. Add enough milk to the prune water to make 1½ cups. Sift together the flour, salt and baking powder. Mix in the prunes. Into a well in the center put the shortening, sugar and milk mixture, when blended put into a greased pan. Bake for 1 hour at 350 degrees F. Servis 12.

Welsh Rarebit

One and one-half cups cheese, 1 egg, 2 tablespoons flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons fat, ½ teaspoon mustard, ½ teaspoon paprika, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 2 cups milk, ½ teaspoon baking powder, crisp crackers.

Melt the cheese over hot water. Add the flour, fat and seasonings. Beat the egg and add the milk to it. Gradually stir this into the cheese mixture. Cook until smooth. Stir in the baking powder and serve on crisp crackers. Serves six.

Chilly Sandwiches

Two tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons chopped pepper, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 2 eggs, ½ teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons cream, ½ cup canned tomatoes, ¾ lb. soft mild cheese.

Cook the peppers and onions in the butter. Add the strained tomato, pepper and cook three minutes. Stir in the cheese and seasoning. When the cheese has melted, add the cream and beaten eggs mixed together. Cook a moment longer, stirring all the time. Cool and use as a filling on bread spread with butter.

Soda Biscuits

Two cups flour, ½ tespoon soda, 1 cup buttermilk, 1 tablespoons shortening, 1-16 teaspoon baking powder.

Measure and sift the dry ingredients. Cut in the shortening. Stir in the buttermilk. Roll into a sheet 1-16 inch thick. Cut out and bake on a greased pan at 350 degrees F. Serves 12.

Scalloped Oysters

One pint oysters, ½ cup oyster liquor, ½ cup milk or more, ½ cup bread crumbs, 1 cup cracker crumbs, 1-2 cup fat, salt and pepper.

Melt the fat, stir in the bread and cracker crumbs and season. Pick over and wash the oysters. Put a layer of crumbs in the bottom of a greased baking dish. Over this put a layer of seasoned oysters. Repeat. Pour the liquor and milk over this, adding more milk, if necessary, to moisten. Put a layer of crumbs on top. Bake 30 minutes at 400 degrees F. Serves six.

RAIL NOTES

Figures published in Railroad Data, a publication of the committee on public relations of the eastern railroads, show that fatalities resulting from highway grade crossing accidents in the first six months of 1931 were lowest in number since 1923. The figures were taken from reports made by the railroads to the safety section of the American Railway association.

Additional figures reveal that the number of accidents at grade crossings totaled 2,114 for the first six months of this year, also the lowest in the last eight years. The number of the fatalities the first half of this year was 921, the same total as in 1923.

An even better report was made in the number of persons injured so far this year, which was 2,403, the smallest number for any corresponding period since 1922.

A reduction of 221 was shown in the number of grade crossings this year over the same period last year. The number of persons injured in the first six months of this year was a reduction of 282 compared with the same period last year.

LEAGUE TO PRESENT "THE LOST CHURCH"

Pageant at Epworth Church To Conclude Series of Meetings.

The Senior Epworth League of Epworth M. E. church will present a pageant, "The Lost Church," Friday at 7:30 p. m. The pageant is the last of three special meetings this week in preparation for rally day Sunday.

The theme of the pageant will be the answer to the question, "Have you ever thought what it would mean to live in a churchless community and have none of the blessings a church brings to the community?"

Mrs. R. W. Kauble is director. Four scenes are required to tell the story of a man who falls asleep after he had wished that he might live in a churchless community, and dreams of all the evils such a condition would bring. He awakens to consecrate his life to the church.

The cast follows:

Harold Bradt, a man; Miss Gladys Brobst, his wife; Paul Brobst, their son; Miss Anna Marie Hastings, their daughter; Miss Jane Shelton, her Sunday school teacher; Miss LaVerne Nash, a neighbor; Miss Esther Williams, "Spirit of Ignorance"; Miss Beatrice Wilson, "Spirit of Social Injustice"; Miss Pauline Merriman, "Spirit of Sin; Miss Kathryn Gelbaugh, "Spirit of Spiritual Darkness"; Miss Evelyn Strawser, a poor woman; Miss Isabelle Callahan and Miss Mildred Collins, angels; Miss Della Larson, "Spirit of the Church."

Lloyd Schiller will be property manager. Miss Elizabeth Pace and Miss Mary Heininger will sing.

A good attendance was present for the special mid-week meeting last night. The Ladies' Aid society was in charge of the program, with Mrs. H. K. Henderson presiding. Mrs. C. E. Turley directed the singing and Mrs. John H. Bain led the devotions. Four talks expressing belief in young people, missionary programs, stewardship and evangelism in the church were given by Mrs. R. W. Kauble, Mrs. C. R. Aiken, John H. Clark, and Dr. C. E. Turley, pastor.

To Join Central Union.

Local No. 531, American Federation of Musicians voted to affiliate with the Central Labor Union body, at a meeting last night in the rooms at Democratic headquarters. One member was reinstated. Routine business was conducted.

LaRue Man Held.

Earl Hague of LaRue was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sheriff C. C. Fye near LaRue on a charge of failure to pay a fine of $100 and costs assessed him when arrested several weeks ago and charged with driving while intoxicated. Hague was temporarily released on the first charge when it was understood the case would be appealed. He was committed yesterday to county jail pending payment of the fine.

Board Meets.

The reading of monthly reports with discussions of minor questions, made up the program at the monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Y. M. C. A. held at the Marion hotel last night.

No Time To Be Serious.

There isn't the slightest doubt that Huey P. Long, senator-elect from Louisiana, and nominal governor of that state, is in deadly earnest whenever he spins the curly grey head of his deadly rival, Lieutenant Governor Paul Cyr. It's life and death between the two gents, no less. Mr. Cyr, who once had something to do with trying to oust Mr. Long from office, has missed no chance since then to make himself obnoxious to his superior officer, and Mr. Long has missed no chance to kick Mr. Cyr where it hurts, when his chances came.

Northern states, try as they will to take the political situation in Louisiana seriously, can't bring themselves to it. Governor Long always has been, always will be, no doubt, a political clown who gets funnier in proportion to the seriousness with which he takes himself. The idea that the lieutenant governor of Louisiana has the nerve to declare himself governor because the real governor is marking time waiting to take the oath of another office would do credit to Gilbert and Sullivan. In fact, it would be entirely in keeping if the chorus would appear and put the finishing touches on the scene with a few dozen repetitions of the obvious fact that "here is a pretty mixup, a very pretty mixup, ta, ta, boom-de-ray!"

But there are further complications. The fate of the impudent usurper is yet to be determined. "This rids Louisiana of Paul Cyr," thundered Governor Long, scowling darkly. "By taking the oath as governor he has forfeited his job as lieutenant governor." (Funeral dirge offstage as soldiers cater to carry off Paul Cyr in chains). The play will be continued from day to day, in the Eugene O'Neill manner.

The nation should be pleased to know that the talented juvenile lead, Mr. Long, who has captivated audiences in his home state for so many years, soon is to play his first engagement in the United States senate, where buffoonery really is buffoonery. "Fresh from successes in the South, Huey P. Long stole the show in the senate yesterday," his press notices should read along about the middle of February.

It is estimated that two storms which lasted two days blew 6,292 tons of dust on Winnipeg, the dust averaging two and a quarter ounces to the square yard. We can never be sufficiently thankful that we elected to live down here in the very heart of the garden spot of the world.

A Break in Spain.

President Zamora's resignation is an unfortunate break in the continuity of Spain's growing republican government. It is a sign that the difficulty over separation of the state and church is dangerously acute; Senor Zamora, above everything else, is a peacemaker. When the new government was formed, his elevation to the presidency was considered a guarantee of stabilization.

Anti-clerical feeling in the republican element has been a potential threat to peaceful organization and operation of the new Spanish government from the outset. The church was the bulwark of the monarchy. It is easy to understand why supporters of the new government are apprehensive of the church's probable attitude. Its moral influence over the peasantry and the great majority of the women in Spain makes it a formidable power.

President Zamora's resignation is a protest against the anti-Catholic attitude of the cortes. Although complete interpretation of his action is not yet available, it is safe to assume that, true to his character as a peacemaker, he is opposed to any action that might create an open break. He is interested in putting republican Spain on its feet; he would be opposed inevitably to any policy which might cause disorders and bitter feeling.

Revolution invariably is followed by a plague of discontent, released from the soil it overturns. President Zamora, one of the leaders of the bloodless Spanish revolution, has been overtaken by the discontent he fostered. His resignation can not be viewed otherwise than as a misfortune for the Spanish republic.

It's our guess that those who, from stays in the South, have become familiar with alligator life, will be interested if not highly amused by the story from Middleburg, Virginia, of the terrific battle waged by three men there to overcome and capture a two-foot 'gator. And the funniest side of the thing is that a big city editor fell for a "special" on it.

Cancer mortality in the United States last year was the highest on record, a conservative estimate being 135,000 deaths at an average age of about fifty-nine to sixty years. Never before was the menace of cancer so great and, sad to say, science has not yet discovered a means of coping with the disease as it has with tuberculosis.

Too Many Cooks in Germany.

The German political broth has been uncomfortably peppery since the unsettled days that followed the World war. Too many cooks, each with an ingredient of his own to dump into it, have done their work well, if not always wisely.

The reichstag at present is in one of the most difficult situations of its history. Chancellor Bruening, who hopes to maintain his reconstituted ministry, has in prospect a bare one-vote margin of safety when the Nationalist motion to declare non-confidence in the government comes up next Friday. It is the slimmest chance of survival he ever has encountered. Failure to survive would mean a vast reconstruction of government that would contribute further to Germany's unrest.

The tendency of voters in Germany is towards division. Instead of two fairly equal parties, there are numerous parties grouped as Radical, Conservative and Moderate. The situation is hopeless, as far as efficient operation of the theory of majority rule is concerned. Each cook has his own ideas; the cook nominally responsible for the result is so busy arguing and cajoling that the broth inevitably suffers. Germany is but little worse, in this respect, than are England and France, both of which suffer likewise from complicated political "splits."

The opinion of a powerful German figure, General Wilhelm Groener, head of all German defense forces, is an aid to better understanding of Germany's political problem. He said recently: "The dire distress which threatens the life of the German people can be overcome if all political forces unite under a clear purposeful leadership for constructive work in behalf of the fatherland. This work can be accomplished only on a basis of law and the constitution, and the state's organs of enforcement must together serve this purpose."

Germany's political difficulties, arising from multiple party splits, explain the anxiety of responsible leaders in the United States who seek to retain party lines and to discourage the creation of minority legislative blocs. Nothing has happened yet to alter the truth of the proverb that too many cooks spoil the broth.

A Warning.

There are no attorneys employed by the state welfare department to obtain the release of prisoners. General realization of the fact will enable the state to discourage the heartless preying of a few individuals who have collected money from relatives and friends of prisoners by representing themselves as "welfare attorneys."

The practice has not been uncommon in the past, but it is only recently that persons using it have increased their activities to a point which demands issue of a general warning against them. The latest case to come to the attention of prison officials concerns a widow living in Massillon. Unable to raise the amount of money stipulated by the "welfare attorney" to free her son in the state penitentiary, she lost nothing, but was grieved deeply because she was unable to take advantage of her opportunity to help him.

There is no class of wrong-doer more reprehensible than that one whose members fatten by taking mean advantages of the unquestioning affection and trust of the unwary. Ohio will have no mercy on the bogus lawyers posing as "welfare attorneys," if they have the bad luck to get caught.

Editorial Opinion.

OUR GENEROUS GOVERNMENT.

The Atlantic Monthly publishes some interesting facts and figures that should enlist the attention of people both in and out of congress.

According to the article each United States senator has an allowance of $10,200 a year for clerk hire, each representative $5,000. Committee chairmen get more.

The author recites a list—admittedly not complete—of twenty-four senators and 129 representatives whose clerks bear similar names. He states that some of them have more than one clerk whose name fits. The article makes no effort to specify all the possible cases of in-laws—kin immediate and collateral, consanguinity to the nth degree—but it names some names. Indeed, the writer intimates that some of the patriotic representatives have relatives on the pay roll who have no other connection with their "jobs" than the extraction of their salaries from the public treasury. He goes even further than that, repeating the charge that members of congress have on government pay minor children going to school, and asserts that some thrifty legislators collect the wages of clerks who are not members of the family.

No one would imagine that all members of congress are engaged in this dubious practice, but it is fair to assume that the writer was fairly well satisfied with his data in this connection. A reasonable deduction—granting that what the writer says may be in part true—would appear to be that such disciples of nepotism should now step forward and, as gracefully as may be, cut their own pay and the pay of their uncles, their cousins, aunts, nieces, nephews, etc., in these parlous times, in the interests of a sincere devotion to the welfare of the taxpayers of the country.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

ANOTHER WHITE MAN'S BURDEN.

An unquestionably well-intentioned couple in New York have created a foundation for the education of the natives of American Samoa, so they can take "their proper place in present-day life." They are to be instructed "in all the arts of living and of government" under modern conditions.

We shudder for the poor Samoans. For their proper place in present-day life will be what the administrators of the foundation think it ought to be and not what the Samoans themselves would like.

The Samoans are a peaceable and friendly people, who enjoy living and are not greatly concerned about acquiring wealth, or with depressions, mechanization and similar things.

Now, we suppose, they will be taught to wear conventional clothes, which they do not like, and about work, for which they have a natural and deep-seated aversion, and which they have been able to avoid because Nature was so good to them. And doubtless they will forget to loaf and dance and laugh and sing and play in the ocean and fish, which things they reputedly are fondest of.

They will learn acquisitiveness and will know what riches and poverty and hunger mean, if they are to be truly modern.

Or perhaps the foundation has a better plan of "education." We hope so. — Columbus Citizen.

Noah Brown.

BY J. R. GALBRAITH.

That is a name which few students of history are familiar and yet remotely his work had much to do with the success of American arms in the last battle of the War of 1812 that was fought within the territorial boundaries of Ohio—the Battle of Lake Erie, September 10, 1813.

For Noah Brown was the master shipwright upon whom Perry relied for the construction of his fleet at Erie, Pennsylvania. It was Perry's idea that a telling blow might be dealt Great Britain on the Great Lakes and it was upon his suggestion that it was attempted. He had his plans well in hand when the naval order to carry them out was given and within twenty-four hours he was on his way to Erie to begin.

But rapid as Perry's movements were, Brown was there waiting for him when he reached Erie. That was on March 23, 1813. Both men had covered most of the distance from the east in sleighs, and snow still lay deep on the ground. But Brown had a force of fifty ships carpenters on the way from Philadelphia, and they soon put in appearance. Meanwhile Perry and Brown had completed their plans for a fleet, selected their timber and located the ways on which the vessels were to be built.

Caution and fast work were necessary. The British had naval vessels nearby, and it would be their object to locate Perry and break up his enterprise. So fast did Brown's men work that with nothing but timber grown on the ground, the tools they had carried with them and such naval outfitting as was to be secured nearby, they had a fleet consisting of the "Lawrence," twenty guns, the "Niagara," twenty guns, the "Caledonia," three guns, the "Ariel," four guns, the "Scorpion," two guns, the "Somers," two guns and two swivels, the "Tigress," "Porcupine" and "Trip" one gun each—a total of nine vessels aggregating fifty-four guns and two swivels, launched and armed by July 25. Of course, Perry was the powerhouse behind all this enterprise, but that he had a co-worker in Brown who was invaluable to him need hardly be said.

Cause Must Be Removed.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

By anemia, we mean a condition where there is a defect in the quality, or a considerable reduction in the total quantity of blood.

Ordinary anemia is met with very commonly and is usually only a temporary thing. It disappears after a few weeks or months with proper care and treatment.

Serious bleeding may produce an anemic condition. This type is called "secondary anemia." Secondary anemia may follow malarial poisoning, blood poisoning, and other infections. Mercury and other chemicals may produce anemia of the secondary type.

What is known as primary or essential anemia has no recognized cause. Young girls between the ages of thirteen and seventeen are liable to attacks of it. The blood-making machinery fails to do its work, and in consequence a peculiar pallor or greenish complexion develops.

A very much more serious malady is pernicious anemia. Like primary anemia it is obscure in origin. Men are much more subject to it than women, especially under thirty-five. In women it is often associated with pregnancy. Severe emotional experience, shock or other similar mental states are causative factors.

Poison developed in any part of the body may cause anemia. Degenerative processes in any portion of the body or organs, due to obscure causes, may lead to impoverishment of the blood and anemia.

In every case of anemia, and especially pernicious anemia, a careful examination should be made to find out whether or not there is pus infection somewhere in the body. Bad teeth, diseased tonsils and particularly intestinal infection are capable of producing symptoms very like pernicious anemia.

The patient has an increasing pallor, a lemon-colored complexion, weakness of the muscles, with vomiting and diarrhea. There is difficulty in breathing. The condition may clear up for a few weeks, but the symptoms recur again and again.

It is a chronic condition and there is no hope for a cure for it until the underlying cause is reached and removed. A study must be made of all the disturbing factors.

Each case must be treated on its own peculiar merits. Hope for a cure lies entirely on finding and removing the cause. It may continue months and even years.

Those who have this disease should remain in bed, have massage, and their diet carefully regulated. Practising light gymnastics may improve the patient's condition. In some cases transfusion of blood is found useful.

Burton, Physicist-Inventor.

BY ARCHIBALD HENDERSON.

A scientist is sometimes known to the general public for some minor contribution to knowledge, as compared with his other far more important work. This is the case of Sir David Brewster, who is popularly known as the inventor of the kaleidoscope. But Brewster was a distinguished physicist. He may be said to have been with Wheatstone, the joint inventor of the stereoscope. He was a master in the manipulation of lenses. And his researches on the subject of light made him internationally famous. He was a prodigious worker, a prolific writer, and the editor of various educational works. He was undoubtedly one of the most useful scientists of his day.

David Brewster was born in Jedburgh in Scotland, on December 11, 1781. The son of the rector of the local grammar school, he was destined for the ministry. The strain of preaching was too great for him, and he abandoned the pulpit for the editorial chair and the post of tutor.

At the age of twenty-seven he became the editor of the Edinburgh Encyclopaedia, to which he made many contributions as writer. He became very much interested in the subject of light and the phenomena of optics. Before he was thirty he had begun the long series of investigations in these subjects, which are associated with his name. He invented the kaleidoscope a scientific toy which produced an infinite number of symmetrical figures. This device has been extensively employed in industry, to secure suitable and attractive designs and patterns for carpets, wall papers, and other fabrics.

Into the stereoscope, invented by Wheatstone, Brewster introduced refracting lenses. He was then able to resort to the photographic art for his pictures, producing remarkably satisfactory results. Forty years ago, the Brewster stereoscope was in thousands of homes in England and this country. By suitably adjusting the focus, two pictures, side by side and exact duplicates, blend exactly into one. The effect of relief, supplied naturally by the eye, is consequently greatly intensified.

In 1816 he made experiments of such importance on the polarization of light that he was awarded the Copley medal. His device was to secure reflections between plates. Three years later for further researches in the same field, he was awarded the Rumford gold and silver medals. He was a fellow of the Royal society, and a member of many famous scientific academies of numerous countries. In 1831 he was granted a government pension. He assisted in the founding of the British association, of which he was an active and prominent member. He is credited with explaining for the first time the nature and cause of color-blindness. This famous scientist, inventor, author, editor, died on February 10, 1868. — Copyright, 1931, International Feature Service, Inc.

City of Montevideo.

BY TEMPLE MANNING.

Here is a city of pleasure, where manana—tomorrow—is perennial, it seems, and there is a calm air which pervades everything. Cafe life is a great part of the city, and much of its business is transacted at the little outdoor tables.

There is nothing of grandeur about Montevideo, but it boasts handsome boulevards and lovely plazas. Its waterfront is like that of other South American seaports in appearance, but it is unusual in that the waterfront is close to the heart of the city.

The city was founded in 1726 by Don Mauricio Zabala, governor of Buenos Aires, and became the capital of the Uruguayan republic in 1828. Now it is one of the wealthiest cities of the Southern continent.

For a real glimpse of Montevidean life, one must come to the cafe. Here every one drinks black coffee and cocktails. The cocktail is a favorite drink and it is served with a veritable garden of olives, anchovies, almonds and other delicatessen surrounding it.

Sellers of lottery tickets wander in and out of the tables, newsboys cry their headlines and flower vendors offer their blooms.

Chess players are always securely lodged at the choice tables and they are surrounded by groups of "experts" who earnestly discuss each move that is made.

The glittering cafes are only part of the gay life, although they are the center of it. There are the races, dances and revues, cinemas and the gambling casino.

And at night it is that you may see the youth of Uruguay courting in traditional fashion. The young man stands beneath the balcony window of his senorita and perhaps they will talk through the lattice. He will lounge there, serenely oblivious of passers-by, and under other latticed windows, in the same street, other young men are standing, equally oblivious. It is the custom of courtship.

Twenty Years Ago.

It was Sunday, October 15.

Bandmaster Creatore was arrested in Asheville, North Carolina. Unable to find a statute under which to prosecute for giving a performance on Sunday, the charge was brought under an archaic law forbidding the pursuit of a regular occupation on the Sabbath. He was fined one dollar the following day.

Two new ministers began their duties in Marion—Rev. C. R. Havighurst at Epworth M. E. and Rev. Charles J. Keppel at Salem's Evangelical Protestant church.

Miss Jean Hammer and Mr. Fred Zachman were married by Rev. C. J. Keppel.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Dairy, of Delaware avenue.

A local-option mass meeting was held at First Presbyterian church. George E. Christian presided.

Marion defeated a Columbus all-star team, three to nothing. Lewis and Hogan did the hurling for the locals.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. McINTYRE.

New York, Oct. 15—The other evening in a Tenth avenue coffee house I met one of the beglamoured creatures known as a "gun moll." The introduction was through a Tenderloin reporter on a gangster assignment. I expected a flinty and highly rouged lady — swift tongued, trigger minded.

Instead I found an unbelievably vapid chewing gum type, bedecked in five-and-ten finery who might have stepped from a Vina Delmar's novel. She was "crazy about Richard Barthelmess" and had won three Friday night prize contests in various dance halls.

Her patter was punctuated with "OH!" and "You're telling me?" All in all a witless girl of about twenty, the kind often found in movie theater cages on Third avenue or balancing trays in depot restaurants in Chicago. Yet she had just figured prominently in the life of a desperado.

As she said "he got a bum rap and is doing a bit up the river." She was terrifically conscious of the part she played in one of his adventures, displaying newspaper clippings from a bright red leather purse which showed them in cells at a police station.

So far as I could gather she had been freed largely because of her youth and was now under the espionage of a correction school to which she reports weekly. It was interesting to note the part environment played in her waywardness.

She spoke of her father as "the old harp" and as one whom she never saw sober and there was the same indifference about her mother. "She went out with the horrors over at Welfare," she said, and added unemotionally: "A gin head, too."

I am told most of the "gun molls" are of the same ilk. They are waifs cast loose from orphanages or products of tenement-house-living neglect. Gangsters are their heroes and they will do anything at their bidding. And for this reason prove of great value.

One of those splay-footed performers of the bounding mat—trampline is the backstage name—was held for five weeks at the Palace this summer and only released because of prior engagements. It's my guess an expert trick bicycle rider could have the same run. There is a new generation for many old acts for which we older audiences grew indifferent.

The bounding mat looks easiest of all acrobatic antics. To the casual eye one merely hits and bounces, yet I am told it requires remarkable equilibristic precision. The slightest misjudging of distance results in severe and often fatal accidents. Records show that for this reason bounding mat performers do not last long. More than a dozen top liners of twenty years ago were catapaulted to wheel chairs.

A Washington Daybook.

BY HERBERT PLUMMER.

Washington, Oct. 15—They'll probably be telling the saga of John N. Garner years hence in Texas if that ruddy-faced, tousle-headed gentleman from Uvalde, Red River county, becomes the next speaker of the house of representatives.

For certainly the "Honorable Jack" will have made himself the central figure of a story which lends itself to repetition wherever politics is discussed.

Two years ago he assumed leadership of the Democratic party in the house under conditions which would seem to make melancholy the most optimistic political strategist.

Democratic membership had been whittled down to the point of a real minority party.

But was Garner downhearted? Hardly. He boasted that under reconsolidated leadership he had hopes that his party would operate more effectively than had been possible for years.

* * *

He took over both the floor leader's duties and control of minority committee assignments.

For a long time these functions had been divided between Garner and Finis Garrett of Tennessee, but with the latter out of the picture Garner was in full control.

This division of leadership resulted from the illness and death of Claude Kitchen, of North Carolina, leader of the house during war times.

Kitchen delegated Garrett—a master parliamentarian and one of the fastest thinkers on his feet the house has ever known—to look after the floor.

He turned over committee assignments to the next ranking Democrat on ways and means. Garner was fourth on this committee. Kitchen being No. 1, Hull, of Tennessee—now senator, and Rainey, of Illinois, next.

Then came the Harding landslide and out went Hull and Rainey. This left Garner arbiter of minority committee assignments after Kitchen's death.

After Garrett's defeat the Texan was left the whole works. The Democrats once again had a unified command—a thing invaluable in any kind of warfare.

Garner started right in with the bag of political tricks his three thirteen consecutive years in the house had taught him.

He was secure in his seat, for in Democratic off years he seems to have no more trouble in coming back to congress than in on years.

He soon evidenced that he knew what to do with his wide leadership powers.

And he didn't do it by making speeches. He doesn't like that sort of thing.

Sometimes his friends down in Texas fear that he will not be reelected. He will make no campaign talks. Yet he always has been victorious just the same.

WALKER IS SPEAKER AT LABOR MEETING

Family Welfare Society Head Discusses Relief Problems with Union.

The need of closer cooperation between the various civic groups if relief work is to be carried out satisfactorily this winter, was stressed by H. B. Walker, president of the Family Welfare society, in a talk at the meeting of the Central Labor union last night.

After outlining the operation of the Welfare society, Mr. Walker recommended the appointment of a commission to study the needs and to work out plans for handling the relief work and suggested the appointment of two members of the Central Labor union as members of the commission. The plan was indorsed by the body who also extended a vote of thanks to Mr. Walker for his cooperation in the gas question dispute a year or so ago when the labor body fought against the giving of a franchise at the higher rates asked by the company.

Dr. F. C. Smith also was a speaker at the meeting. The body elected Hayes Maynard, president of the organization, a member of Dr. Sawyer's group of 100 to represent the Labor unions in civic problems.

Local Members Sing in Chorus at Dayton Meeting of Ohio Congress.

Marion Parent-Teacher associations are well represented at the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teacher, in Dayton today and Friday. The congress opened Wednesday.

This afternoon, one of the outstanding numbers on the program was the appearance of the Ohio Mother Singers chorus of the P.-T. A. to present a program of five songs. Six of the chorus were Marion women, Mrs. Eugene Moore, Mrs. Bertram Myers, Mrs. Z. P. Davis, Mrs. J. E. Oliphant, Mrs. Morris Kline and Mrs. E. O. Smith. The group of six left yesterday to attend the opening session and will return tonight.

Spiritual leadership is the greatest educational need in these times of depression, Dr. H. O. Shigner, state director of education told the congress in his address. "School development in the past has been largely along the line of physical equipment," he said, according to an Associated Press wire from the convention city.

Each of the Marion associations sent one or two delegates and appointed alternates to assure a good representation at the convention.

BOOKIES PICTURE AL AS LOSING GAMBLER

Gangster Bet Heavily, but "Seldom Won," Tax Fraud Jury Is Told.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 15 — Alphonse Capone "public enemy," spend thrift and alleged income tax delinquent, has a new claim to distinction as one of the world's worst pickers of race horses

The big gang commander was a constant and heavy better a series of bookmakers have testified in his trial for evading income taxes but he "seldom won Seven took the stand yesterday and established his losses at more than $200 000 for four years Not one of them said Capone made a net profit on a race meeting

The defendant fairly beamed at this testimony admittedly given at his request. The Capone lawyers contend these losses $25 000 in 1924, $47 000 in 1925 $55 000 in 1926 and $90 000 in 1927 must be deducted from any income the government may have proved

But Capone was no ordinary loser. He was a much sought after customer, the testimony showed one who was willingly given credit without security one who was not required to step out of his hotel headquarters to settle up—the bookies all went to him, and they all obeyed his wishes in handling only currency

Even at this late date the "bookies' said they were glad to respond to a summons from "Scarface Al"

TAMMANY LAUNCHES NEW YORK CAMPAIGN

Al Smith, Jimmy Walker Lead Democrats in Noisy Political Pow Wow.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK Oct 15—Tammany braves are on the warpath again Spurred by the oratory of former Governor Alfred E Smith—the happy warrior' and by Mayor James J Walker 4 000 Manhattan Democrats crowded the Tammany wigwam last night in a noisy demonstrative campaign pow-wow

The objectives set for Manhattan Democracy were two-fold election or reelection of Tammany office seekers and vindication from the criticism that has grown from the Seabury investigation into city of fices

Former Governor Smith who was hailed as our next President went into the qualification of several candidates running for office and warned that this was not an off year election even though no presidential candidate is to be chosen. He did not criticise the Seabury investigators nor did he mention national politics

Mayor Walker painted Tammany at a great humanitarian organization which will see to it this winter that not one man of necessity will be begging on the streets for something to eat or a place to sleep" Tammany, he said may stand for politics but it also stands 'for the welfare of the people

LAW SUIT WORKS AFTER GUNS FAIL

By The Associated Press

TIFFIN O Oct. 15—A legal order today kept state highway workmen from widening part of the Fostoria Bettsville road where shotguns had failed to stop them two days ago

Common pleas court yesterday granted Harmon Wynant and Mrs Minnie Stahl a temporary injunction barring road workers from their farms

Two unidentified farmers attempted to drive the construction crew away with shotguns, Tuesday but gave it up when peace officers were called The dispute involves 20 feet on land along the highway The state claims a 60-foot right-of-way while the farmers insist 40 feet has been the limit in the past.

WANT TO LOOK YOUNG?

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver

Dr Edwards a well known physician in Ohio perfected a vegetable compound as a substitute for calomel to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years

Dr Edwards Olive Tablets are gentle in their action yet always effective They help bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities

Dr Edwards Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c 30c, 60c —Adv.

DEMAND COMPLETE G. O. P. DRY TICKET

Anti-Saloonists Not To Accept Wet for Vice President, McBride Says.

By International News Service

WASHINGTON Oct. 15—Organized drys will demand an 'all dry Republican Presidential ticket in 1932 and will not give President Hoover wholehearted support if a wet candidate is named for the vice presidency, F Scott McBride superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America said today

Aroused by reports that Republican politicians are seeking an anti-prohibition candidate for vice president to 'balance" the ticket, the drys are planning a determined pre-convention fight to block the movement

Republican wets have figured prominently in vice presidential discussions since Vice President Charles Curtis indicated he may be a candidate for his old senate seat next year

Before the death of Senator Dwight Morrow it was reported that powerful eastern Republicans, with an eye to votes in the wet states hoped to make Morrow the running mate of Mr Hoover

"It would be the most foolish thing the Republican party could do," said McBride. 'It would not give the ticket any strength and it would hurt the candidacy of Mr Hoover '

PETAIN WELCOMED FOR VISIT TO U. S.

By The Associated Press

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va. Oct. 15—The cruisers Suffren and Duquesne, carrying Marshal Henri Petain and his delegation from France to Yorktown sesqui-centennial celebration steamed into port today

After running up the American flag beside the French tri-color the ships fired a salute of 21 guns in honor of the arrival at the American shore Batteries of Fortress Monroe boomed out a welcoming reply over the sun-lit waters of Hampton Roads.

The French party, including a group of descendants of George Washington, comrades in arms at the siege of Yorktown 150 years ago planned to come ashore before noon.

SEE STATE VICTORY IN SCHOOL DISPUTE

By The Associated Press

HAMILTON, O., Oct. 15—A remark of Appellate Judge Simon Ross was interpreted today as indicating he favored the state's claim that a student in a state supported school can be dismissed for not meeting scholastic requirements

Judge Ross interrupted yesterday's hearing in the case of Jean West of Portsmouth, former Miami university student, to say that "The court is of one mind that schools have the authority to establish their own rules for the suspension of students on fixed standards of scholarship"

Judge Ross, however, indicated an opinion might not be handed down inasmuch as Miss West has since transferred to another school.

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Resinol clears them away

"My complexion was very poor because of pimples and blackheads which covered my face and neck. I had been advised to try Resinol Soap and Ointment, but had tried so many other things without success I was disgusted with everything. However, a friend urged me to try a sample anyway. In three days' time the improvement was so great I could hardly believe it. I will always have a word of praise for Resinol." (Signed)—

EAGER TO TELL ABOUT HER STOMACH

"I want to tell others about my experience with Pape's Diapepsin," says Mrs. B Eastman, 1200 California St., Denver, Colo. "I tried a lot of things for my indigestion, but none of them did any good Then a friend persuaded me to take a few tablets of this wonderful preparation.

"Now I even eat cabbage without any distress afterwards It used to cause real suffering I am not nearly so nervous as I used to be, feel much stronger and better in every way"

A medicine must have real merit to bring forth enthusiastic statements like this And when not one, but hundreds, even thousands, are telling the same story of success, there seems no reason to doubt the day-in and day-out reliability of Pape's Diapepsin to help stomach sufferers

These harmless candy like tablets relieve the heartburn, nausea, gas belching, headaches, dizziness and other symptoms of indigestion.

Short Lived

EMPRESS EUGENIE headgear is done. Not all Eugenies, but those with the trailing white plumes with that sickly synthetic look.

One Marion hatter, with a wave of his hands, dismissed the white-feathered Eugenies in a conversation this week. As far as the department stores and milliners are concerned, white plumes, those with three stringy feathers per inch of plume, are "done" as far as sale value goes.

But the Empress Eugenie in its various more attractive forms—men say there are no such things—will continue through the winter as the prevailing hat mode.

Up in the Air

IT would appear to the casual observer that Marion politics are "up in the air" about something. Or that political leaders are trying to get on top of the city.

On the north side of Center street, between Main and State streets are the Republican headquarters, three stories above sidewalk level. On the opposite side, also three stories high, are the Democratic headquarters.

Leaders of both parties can be confident that all who attend meetings at the headquarters are 100 per cent loyal to their parties, for, as one political observer pointed out, none but a faithful and loyal party worker would climb three flights of stairs to attend a political meeting.

Trusting

ANIMALS can not speak, but their actions often do! Anyone could have read the thoughts of a dog crouching outside one of Marion's fashion shops the other day waiting for its mistress to finish shopping.

The chill of the day was having its effect on the dog, which shivered and twisted around nervously as it said in unmistakable dog expressions: "I wish you'd hurry with your business so we can go home."

Another dog, during the last few weeks, has been evincing unusual confidence and trust in mankind. This dog chose the sidewalks for a napping place, and did not hesitate to stretch its body full length upon a concrete or stone slab on the busiest corner. Its unconcerned mein seemed to say: "I've never been stepped on yet."

WILL GET BLANKET, BUT SLIGHTLY LATE

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 15—Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg of the University of Chicago, will receive his first "C" blanket Saturday between halves of the Yale-Maroon game—and it's about time.

Stagg, who was a player as well as coach, received a letter after Chicago's first season, 1892, and since that time has given out 800 blankets to his men.

Saturday he will recive his first one, a white blanket, bearing a maroon "C" and 40 stars.

"I Took Coal, Too," Youth Says as Brother Is Fined

Harley E. Cardiff, captain of the Erie police and Lieutenant Ralph P. Steen were still trying to figure out today whether William Augustus, 18, of Senate street, who climbed into their automobile yesterday with the information that he too had stolen coal from the Erie, was prompted by a desire to share the troubles of his brother, Virgil, who was fined $10 and costs by Judge Martin yesterday, or whether he felt his brother was getting something he was being deprived of.

Yesterday afternoon the two officers were surprised when William approached their car and, opening the door, climbed in. Questioned as to the idea, he said he had also stolen coal from the Erie. As a reward for his honesty it was expected he would be released upon paying for the coal taken. His brother, Virgil is in county jail pending the payment of the fine for stealing 50 cents worth of coal.

ISALY'S GRADE -A- EXTRA RICH MILK

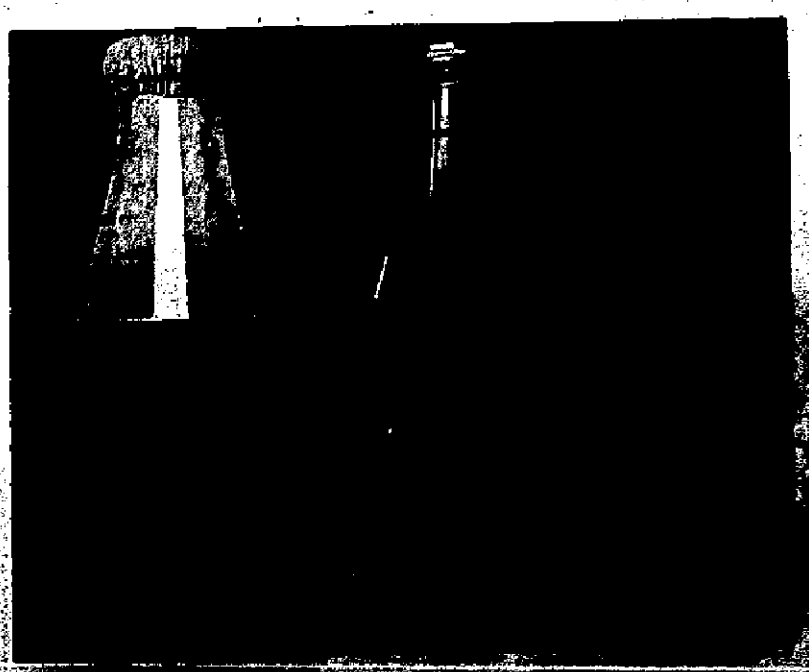
Look at the Extra Cream



Isaly's Grade "A" Extra Rich Milk

Possesses a heavier body with its 5% or more butterfat contents. It is not only rich in Vitamin A, but every glass of it brims with substances vital to health and growth.

Comes from selected dairy farms officially approved by the Marion Health department and is carefully pasteurized and bottled and sealed with a special hood-cap for double protection.

If possible, give your children and family the benefit of this extra rich, extra safe milk.

Why not have them on it at once. A phone call will start the daily delivery [illegible] your door in the morning.
